I. Last Saturday in the Hangar Gym. The score was seven wins and four losses.

The basketball team easily defeated a team. The first victory was a decision won by David Lubins and snapped a body lock for the duration of the regular time.

Lubins' lead was maintained with skill throughout.

II. The Tech team won this year's dual meet with a 20 to 20 draw.

In the 175-pound class, freshmen teams of the two schools were evenly balanced. The Tech team appeared to be the stronger in the later part of the match, but the Lowell team fought back to earn a 20 to 20 draw.

The freshman team's efforts were not enough to overcome the experienced Tech team.

III. The month's rest is expected to put the team in the Hangar Gym on February 15th.

The team's performance improved after the break, and they are expected to be ready for the season's final match.

IV. Technology took the lead in the 192-pound class with an even percentage of wins and losses.

The Tech team scored seven wins and four losses, while the Lowell team scored six wins and five losses in the 192-pound class.

V. The Freshman team lost to the Sophomore team in a close match.

The Sophomore team took the lead in the 192-pound class, but the Freshman team fought back to earn a 19-19 tie.

VI. The quarterback's lead was maintained with skill throughout.

The quarterback's efforts were not enough to overcome the experienced Tech team.

VII. The Lowell quintet defeated the Tech quintet in an easy match.

The first victory was a decision won by David Lubins and snapped a body lock for the duration of the regular time.