M.I.T. Varsity Takes Second At Millrose; Frost Win at K.C.

Varsity Wins Over Syracuse And Columbia

Technology crossed the finish line about two seconds ahead of Syracuse, which had to settle for second place in a mile relay at the 32nd Annual Millrose Games in New York last Saturday night.

The meet was won by the Knights of Columbus meet in Boston. Tech freshman extra and William Willard who led Tech in the Milestone Games. Syracuse and Columbia took the lead at the start with Tech in second place, but at about six laps that order prevailed, but at the third quarter mark Ken Low had nearly pulled Tech into second position as he passed the finish line to win.

They went into the last quarter—Columbia leading, Syracuse second and Tech third. Going into the run Wood began to pull up on the leaders and with a final burst of speed the Beavers outran Syracuse but was unable to make up for Colgate's lead. Thus for the race was comparatively slow—3:30.6. Tech's time was 3:31.8 with quarters of 60.2, 63.4 and 68.2.

Tech Sprinter Puka Mua.

Rudolph Hensel, '41, was all set to run in the first heat of the 100 yard dash when he pulled a muscle while practicing starts. There is some speculation in the fact that he was given only two foot handicap while practicing starts. Hensel is usually given only one foot handicap.

Hedlund Predictions: Come Close In Most Events

BY LESLIE CORSA '41

We met Oscar Hedlund in New York before the Millrose Games last Saturday and asked him what he thought would be the main events. Without even batting an eye he bowed off his predictions in a few minutes.

Tech's mile relay team followed their time of 3:50.8 by taking second place in a mile relay by taking second place in a mile relay in the final straight race to the Millrose Games. Columbia and Colgate, who finished the mile in 3:50.0.

Beethoven Falls

Only a tragedy prevented Oscar's prediction of the men's 10 mile race coming true. Be forecast that Charlie Beethoven would lose the race in 1:14:4.1. safe and enough Charlie was well ahead of the finish line when he encountered a gale and fell on the remaining mile and a half and Beethoven missed up in front of the finish line and finished third in the race in 1:14:7.8.

Oscar was so surprised that the time of the first 10 mile time in the Garden when Roy Staley of Southern California A.A. sped over the 10 mile mark and huddled times in 7:35 a mere 4.1 second for a new world record. Allen Fostick of the San Francisco A.A. A.A. who had predicted victory equalled the old record of 2:24 set at Milet time in 1941. it was 3:25 slower than the forecast.

Trojan Travels Again

Accident victim in the two-person event at the race was in the first heat of the 100 yard dash. The Beavers were unable to make up for Colgate's lead. Thus for the race was comparatively slow—3:30.6. Tech's time was 3:31.8 with quarters of 60.2, 63.4 and 68.2.
