Drama Clubs To Cooperate On New Play
Raymond G. O'Connell
Class Of 1941
Given Lead
ABOUT IRISH YOUTH
Leonard Robinson's play, "The White Haired Boy" will be presented on February 24 and 25 at Brach Theatre to see Professor the Emerson Shop and the Drama Club. Tickets will be sold at $1.00 each.

The plot of the play centers about Denis, the white headed boy, idol of an Irish family. When the curtain falls he again reigns as the center of the family love.

In the following weeks he will be the basis for a series of family love stories. Denis is a boy in Dublin studying to be a doctor but fails to make the grade. He is sent back to school, getting a general upheaval in the family.

Review Save
The remainder of the play centers Denis' winning of the family love. When the curtain falls he again reigns as the center of the family love.

The Dramashop, student drama organization of the Faculty and the Drama Club, is cooperating for this first time on this production.

(Continued on Page 4)

Dramashop

Three Tech Men Awarded Prizes
Architectural Awards Given For Designs Of Municipal Structures
These three Technologists were honored recently when work entered into two architectural competitions were awarded prizes. John C. Kelly, graduate student at the Institute, won the second place offered by the Boston Architectural League for a design of the South End Municipal Library. Two fellow students, James E. and William W. Craig, were awarded first and second places respectively in the competition of the St. Ann's Hospital Craftsmanship Awards. The afairs tonight marks the first appearance of Billy Burke and his orchestra at a Boston theater.

Military Ball
For Initiates
Photographers From Life To Record Doings At Ceremony
Photographers from Life Magazine will be present at the Military Ball that will be held Tuesday evening at the Hotel Commodore, Michael V. Hertel, '40, providing images that will be used in the publication of the Life magazine.

Over 400 Guests Expected Tonight By Church
Billy Burke And Band To Play For Mid-Winter Dance In Walker
More than four hundred girls from neighboring colleges have been invited to attend the Catholic Church's Mid-Winter Informal Dance which will be staged in Walker Memorial tonight.

Campus Distribution Of Rival Blotter Is Barred
A person posing as a Technological student has solicited advertising to place his letter head blotter distributed to students on the campus so far. Money has been solicited from several advertisers, who were given copies of the blotter.

The committee rules prohibit distribution of such a blotter to students in the Institute. The only way the blotter is distributed by the T.C.A.

Community Fund Awards Trophy To Dr. Compton
At the closing banquet of the Community Fund Campaign, held Monday evening, February 6, President K. T. Compton of Tech gave away the award for helping to bring about a one hundred per cent contribution to the community services of the organization. The award con- sisted of a presentation of the campaign poster, a "Little 25 cents" note and her pet dog, "Franky.

The presentation of such a gift from the organizers of a local campaign fund had for Dr. Compton the double advantage of breaking record contributions.

Prom Tickets Will Be Sold Next Monday
Porter's Son Will Play In Intermission Of Dance
Tickets for the Junior Prom which will be held at the Hotel Sturman on Monday evening, February 27, will be sold at Miss Lola B. and Miss Lola B. Dance Committee. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday of next week, February 26, 27, 28, and respectively. Only those holding options will be able to secure tickets, which may be obtained by payment of a redemption fee of $2.45 on each option.

Men desiring table reservations for six, may see Junior Prom committee of N. H. Hopper, Parcell, '40, President of the Junior Club as soon as possible, according to the Committee. The table assignments will be issued to reservations of the time of reserving the options.

Say To Play Piano
Panel of the Boston Inter-Collegiate Committee in inter- mission of the dance will be furnished by John H. H. of the Boston Conservatory of Music, and Mr. White, a denimal porter from the conservatory for music, who are studying the Conservatory for years to perform and complete the program.

(Continued on Page 4)

Gun Club Sings
To-night In R. I.

Pembroke College Is Host To Singers For Evening Of Recital
The next recital of the Technology Glue Club will be held on Saturday evening, February 15, at Pembroke College. Aé is a joint effort of Pembroke College and Pembroke College and Pembroke College at Pembroke College.

(Continued on Page 3)

Refugee Aid
The Boston Inter-Collegiate Committee have been asked for assistance in relief of the refugees. The committee is now in process of soliciting the living expenses of those aliens who will attend the Institute. Full financial scholarships have already been furnished for 50 graduate students, provided they meet the requirements that their living expenses can cost the Institute.

The Boston Inter-Collegiate Committee is in contact with the refugees and have given assistance to the refugees in this country.

(Continued on Page 2)

Refugee Aid
The Boston Inter-Collegiate Committee have been asked for assistance in relief of the refugees. The committee is now in process of soliciting the living expenses of those aliens who will attend the Institute. Full financial scholarships have already been furnished for 50 graduate students, provided they meet the requirements that their living expenses can cost the Institute.

The Boston Inter-Collegiate Committee is in contact with the refugees and have given assistance to the refugees in this country.

(Continued on Page 2)

Refugee Aid
The Boston Inter-Collegiate Committee have been asked for assistance in relief of the refugees. The committee is now in process of soliciting the living expenses of those aliens who will attend the Institute. Full financial scholarships have already been furnished for 50 graduate students, provided they meet the requirements that their living expenses can cost the Institute.

(Continued on Page 2)

Refugee Aid
The Boston Inter-Collegiate Committee have been asked for assistance in relief of the refugees. The committee is now in process of soliciting the living expenses of those aliens who will attend the Institute. Full financial scholarships have already been furnished for 50 graduate students, provided they meet the requirements that their living expenses can cost the Institute.

(Continued on Page 2)