by Harold S. Sloan, director of the foundation. The Sloan scholar has declared that the young executive's main task of preparation (for the social and economic aspects of management problems) is to be studied at the point where the frontiers are met. To the students, who are on a year's leave of absence, their present position, are to be reduced on a competitive basis. Sloan advises a concentration of the studies of the students and an applied assignment. The students must be of the age and 25, and must have had at least two years' industrial experience. Part of it is an administrative capacity. They must have advanced work with high academic records in economics or engineering from an accredited college or university.

Special Court Fellows

Meeting in June, the Fellows will embark on a special program of courses in economics and social relations, which is to be prepared and directed by Professor Frederick H. Halsey of the department of Business and Engineering Administration.

for students, a dancing room for official and three rooms for visiting friends. The arrangement has been designed to admit guests to all parts of it by means of windows rather than by skylights.

The main entrance and the lobby in the lower floor will be located on the south side, to be used as a sheltered waiting hall. Opening of the lobby will be by the entrance to the flight of the main entrance hall, and the left to the smaller rooms of the students' offices and the student rooms.

Lunch Room to Have Alcoves

The main kitchen room, which is to be 12 feet wide and 16 feet long, will be divided into three alcoves by the kitchen there. The room has been especially designed to provide ample dressing space. Each alcove will be lighted by a large window in the east wall.

All alcoves are to be connected with the kitchen ventilation system, which will provide a uniform, noiseless removal of odors and a sufficient quantity of equipment. All pipes, vents, and cylinders, in the building, are to be placed in concealed spaces. Plans and specifications of the structure will be made and executed by Mr. I. W. Metzberger.

The dinner is being prepared by Mr. P. F. M. Alton.

A froadirlo from the Tech Outing Club is initiated with fraternity pins, and the tickets will be distributed by Fraternity officers and fraternity men.

Military Ball

by Miss Keenan will be attended by officers, promenaders, and officers. The orchestra will be directed by Mr. W. C. M. McPherson, and the orchestra will consist of about 20 musicians.

Outing Club Goes Skiing

On O.C.A. Weekend

A group from the Outing Club, headed by Paul C. G. Clarke, Jr., is preparing to leave Friday evening for the next Mr. Mountaineers. The trip will be made in the T. 1. C. S., railroad cars. The mixed group of about 20 members will arrive at the inn at 9:30 A.M. and are expected to be back on campus by 10 A.M., Monday Afternoon.

Last weekend some members of the Outing Club and their dates accompanied by Professor and Mrs. William P. Allen stayed at the Tech Cabin, and later went skiing on Mr. Paul Metzberger.

The M. I. T. Ski Team is making preparations to participate in the Intercollegiate Ski Championships at Norwich University next February. The team, composed of eight men, hopes for a higher place in either of the two premier meets as it will have a full team in each event for the first time.
