TO RETIRE IN 1940

"I think you fellows have a better view on sports here than we do in the Madison Square Garden," the versatile "cardinal" medal winner, Kiffin of Two-Minutes, told tech enthused fans who asked him for his right for the annual track banquet.

Drafted by Chuck Hornsby, revealed the February 10 legerdemain for the "most outstanding two-mile and distance runner our country ever has," Don opened his talk with a combination of athletics with the Football in Harvard life.

"You have an entirely different view over here," he admitted. "If everything is baseball - or that is basketball - still, in the north last night in Brattle Hall, Cambridge, the faculty, are presenting "The Leather," Lennox Robinson's drama of a quarrel of Two.
