Sherman Investigating Committee will study a permanent body in Massachusetts to eliminate the activities of organizations and people seeking the overthrow of the American form of government. This committee would carry on investigation to the same manner as the National Desk Committee.

The Tech Town Hall sponsored by the organizations, the T.C.A., the A.R.T., the League, and the Student Committee, is being held by the architects, the students and faculty members. They are interested in the activities of organizations and people seeking the overthrow of the American form of government.

Two Speakers at Each Meeting
Each meeting will have at least two faculty or outside speakers representing different fields of study to discuss the question under discussion. An open question period will be a feature of each meeting.

The Tech Town Hall in charge of the Tech Federation, will be "Anita's Need for Attention." A representative from the organization, will appear to discuss the question under discussion. The activity is planned for the future.
