Harold E. Dato, '41
Leslie Corsa, Jr., '41
Managing Editor .................. Phelps A. Walker, '40
Business Manager ................. J. William Blattenberger, '40
General Manager ................... William S. Kiather, '40

Page Two

inclined to forces and manifestations of nature. Man is and wherefore of the physical world in primitive and knew very little of the why It is interesting that when man was more practical workings of the world a deep disharmony between the two.
MAN, THE SAVAGE

collegians performing subconscious sacrifices fish that are the gloomy abyss of sweeping up human race is so prophesied. Perhaps instead behavior which make us believe that this not-

There must be dark and hidden signifi-
ments of this year should do much to do away

in television sending antennae is a use is expected to have Since Euclid, man had been content to explain space will link gravitation with electricity and bring all man's moral behavior and, 2-

Arthur M. York, '38

DOES LIGHT SPEED CHANGE?

Pictorially significant It is a campaign to build Bullying 1 sale for architecture is aimed to be under way. We have caught a glimpse of what we
The novelists and dramatists who carry

LEARN the RHUMBA, TANGO, SHAG, PALAIS GLIDE, ETC.
$1.00-Saturday prices $1.25 hour total start-
CLASS ESERVED FIRST 500 TIX 50c, $1.00
PAPARONE DANCE STUDIOS
2154 SPYKE RD AT 45TH STREET
Tel. MAL. 6-6691

WALTER'S RESTAURANT
EXCELLENT FOOD AND LIQUORS
Large Portion-steaks Cooked on Electric Grills
Specialty COCKTAIL BAR
314 BEACON STREET COOLIDGE CORNER, BROOKLINE