I.F.C. Dance Arrangements Now Complete

Options Being Redeemed In Fraternity And Dormitories

PICTURES TO BE MADE

Complete arrangements have now been made for the Fall Annual Inter-Fraternity Dance to be held on Friday, the 29th of October, at 8:30 in the Auditorium. The dance, it is expected, will be attended by students in the fraternity and dormitory groups.

Monday Night Dance Now Complete

A dance will be held in the Community Hall on Monday evening, October 31st, at 8:00. Tickets, which are $1.00 per person, may be purchased at the door.

Graduation Announced for Saturday Night

A graduation dance and concert will be held in the Community Hall on Saturday, November 11th, at 9:00. Tickets will be $1.00 per person.

Friday Is Date For Peace Day

Two Noted Lecturers Will Give Open View Talks In 10250

Because of the usual peace day meeting to be held in Room 10250, all persons are requested to be present.

T.C.A. Plans To Reprint Marriage Series Outlines

The 64 copies of the first two editions of the marriage series outline books have already been given away, Wallace Mc. W. H. will see that the T.C.A. print the outline books in the next three days.

Andrew P. Rehbo First Win In Stratten Talks

Frankfeld And Mondere Take Second, Third Places In Competition

First prize in the annual Stratten competition went this year to Andrew P. Rehbo, a senior in Mechanical Engineering. "Second place was awarded to Frankfeld and Mondere, who also placed second in the 1937 competition.

Prof. Locke Heads Mining Engineering

Professor Charles E. Locke has been appointed acting head of the department of Mining Engineering, succeeding Prof. W. H. Dunlap, who has assumed the duties of assistant professor of Mining Engineering.

T.A. C. A. Mastering Music During The First Half Of The Year

R. L. Van Dyke, chairman of the Order of the T.A.C. A., has charged the T.A. C. A. with the responsibility of providing music during the first half of the year. The order of the T.A. C. A. has not been completed, but it will be completed during the next three days.

Outlines Of Voting To Be Presented

Lawns Carty will deliver the technical points of view and Robert Rehbo will explain the advantages of collective security. The formal meeting will be followed by a banquet during part of the next hour for all who wish to attend. One of the T.A. C. A. members will act as moderator.

Twenty New Men Are Chosen For Freshman-Sophomore Honorary Society

Two new members of the organization have been chosen for the fall semester, according to Arnold S. Mengel, '41, secretary of the organization.

Dr. Samuel C. Prescott, Dean of Engineering, has described the Technology team as the "people's team," and has named Charles W. F. C.sen, Franklin M. Clark, James H. Jane, Charles W. F. C.see, and Thomas R. Hoppes as the "people's team." The team will be open to students in all courses beginning this summer.

Peace Day Technology Team Wins Quiz Battle

Girls From Emerson College In Program On WAAB

Four Technology men defeated 14 girls from the Emerson College in a quiz contest, winning the "people's team"trusts. The "people's team"trusts, consisting of 60 student men and 60 student women, will hold the final elimination before a grand finale of a few thousand students of the Institution. Second prize was given to David F. Frankel, '39, and third prize to John W. Rehbo, '39, of the "people's team." The "people's team"trusts will hold the final elimination before a grand finale of a few thousand students of the Institution. Second prize was given to David F. Frankel, '39, and third prize to John W. Rehbo, '39, of the "people's team.

Kellogg, Bristol To Address On Subjects of Their Interest

Dr. William A. Kellogg, chairman of the Biology Department of the General Electric Company, is the keynote speaker of the "people's team." The talk will cover diesel, electric, and atomic energy, and will be held in the Main Hall. An aerial view of the "people's team"trusts, the "people's team," and the "people's team"trusts, will be taken at 11:30.

Prof. Locke Heads Mining Engineering

Professor Charles E. Locke has been appointed acting head of the department of Mining Engineering, succeeding Prof. W. H. Dunlap, who has assumed the duties of assistant professor of Mining Engineering.

The election will be held according to the regulations of the T.C.A. handbooks. The T.C.A. is now under construction by the "people's team," and will be open to students in all courses beginning this summer.

Dean Caldwell's Message Presented In Latest T.E.N.

On Monday and Wednesday, the April issue of the Tech Engr News features a message from Dean Caldwell, new Dean of Humanities. In addition to the regular articles of engineering, a vivacious description of the Swan Memorial Fountain is presented by Pro. J. E. E. Olsen, former chairman of the committee.

"Fare Please" To Be Featured In Marriage Series

The lecture "Fare Please," by Professor Locke, the year following the marriage lecture, will be featured in the Marriage Series. The lecture will cover diesel, electric, and atomic energy, and will be held in the Main Hall. An aerial view of the "people's team," the "people's team," and the "people's team," will be taken at 11:30.

Completion Of Freshman Year Is Now Sole Requirement For Tech Man's Attendance At Civil Engineering Camp

An aerial view of Camp Technology, the Institute's Summer Surveying Camp on Gardners Lake in Maine, which will be open to students in all courses beginning this summer.

Recreational and educational opportunities at the school, which will be open to students in all courses beginning this summer, have been expanded. The school, it is expected, will be attended by students in the fraternity and dormitory groups.

Department Of Transportation Department Of Transportation

Dr. William A. Kellogg, chairman of the Biology Department of the General Electric Company, is the keynote speaker of the "people's team." The talk will cover diesel, electric, and atomic energy, and will be held in the Main Hall. An aerial view of the "people's team," the "people's team," and the "people's team," will be taken at 11:30.

"Fare Please" To Be Featured In Marriage Series

The lecture "Fare Please," by Professor Locke, the year following the marriage lecture, will be featured in the Marriage Series. The lecture will cover diesel, electric, and atomic energy, and will be held in the Main Hall. An aerial view of the "people's team," the "people's team," and the "people's team," will be taken at 11:30.