Incoming Head Of Dorm College is H. Rapport

M. Beare and J. Wiley are Named Treasurer and Auditor of Sorority DORM BOARD PRESENT

The new Deluty Committee for the year ’39—’40 was announced last night at the consultation meeting. Henry Rapport, ’41, was named chairman. Paul H. Sandorff, ’39, secretary, presented until Rapport took over the chair.

Good appetizers at the dinner were prepared by the dormitory board. The options were brought by: Hamilton, Dean Harold E. Lebold, Jean Wood, and Dr. Avery M. Abbott.

Beare, Wiley Officers Beside Rapport, the committee in charge of the dormitory includes: Beare, ’40, treasurer, and Joseph F. Wiley, ’41, auditor.

Hall Chairmen Named The new six hall chairmen who have been appointed are: Charles A. Wiles, ’41, William E. Morley, ’41, Howard S. Garber, ’41, Ernest B. Martin, ’41, Dept. Ronson; Teddy E. Von Arx, ’40, and Edward R. Wuermann, ’41.

Miss Florence Ward Stiles, Shrivia, member of the Army Rotc Athletic Association, has been appointed to the newly created post of advisor to women students. It was announced last night.

Miss Stiles, who graduated from the School of Architecture last year, will work in her new duties in connection with her activities as head of the architectural library.

Since 1938 Miss Stiles has been president of the M.I.T. Women’s Association, the organization of Institute women of which there are more than 300 living.

Native of N. H.

She is a native of New Hampshire and was educated in the public schools of Cambridge before entering M.I.T. Following her graduation she worked with the staff of Wins, Manning and others in the art work, and taught to the art work.

Seniors’ Options Redeemed Friday Those For Which Options Also On Sale—Last Opportunity

All Senior Week options will be reissued to the State Library this Friday April 21st. In addition, Senior Week activities that include options or purchase of options have been increased.

The price of the tickets for the above options is $1.00, regardless of age.

The date of the sale of the Senior options will be April 21st. For those who have not been informed, the price of the Senior Ball is $9.00, which includes the cost of the State Peach Concert, $1.00 per individual.

There will be an important meeting at the Senior Week Committee at 5:30 this Friday evening.

Radio Society Addressed By Mr. A. M. Hallenstein

Mr. A. M. Hallenstein, representative of the Bell Telephone Company from the monitoring control in Hingham, spoke last night at meeting of the Radio Society. He discussed the equipment, operating, signalling and other details pertaining to his business at the stations.

Mr. Kolter, an inspected for the Federal Communications Commission, is giving the meeting a speech as a favor to the society.

Dorsey Plays At I.F.C. Ball Carnival, All Tech Sing Complete Busy Weekend

Climaxing several months of preparation, the Fifth Annual Interfraternity Contra Dance was staged in the Imperial Ballroom of the Hotel New Englander this past Saturday night from 10 P.M. to 1 A.M. Friday evening.

The All Tech Sing concert in the Great Court and the All Tech Carnival sponsored by the 616 Club in Walker Memorial brought the activities of the interfraternity weekend to a close Saturday evening.

Two nationally famous orchestras provided music for the social. Harry Marshard and his orchestra, whose songs have played at many of the nation’s best hotels, was the sponsor of the dance from 11 till 1 when Tommy Dorsey, the sentimental leader of swing, was handed the floor at the Friar’s Ball in Boston Garden.

(Continued on Page 2.)

Officers Named At Staff Banquet Friday Night M. L. Wood, J. C. Gray To Complete 1940 Senior Board

Donald W. Ross, ’40, was announced General Manager of the Technique at that publication’s annual banquet at the Coplay-Paine last Friday night. The other members of next year’s Managing board will be Marlon Z. Wood, ’41, Editor-in-Chief, and John E. Gray, ’42, Business Manager.

The junior board for next year will include: Charles A. Klezman, Christine F. Crop, Alice Whiting, Wm. M. Bowes, Herbert A. Klein, Proctor E. Gillingham, Robert A. Balmes, John C. Hutzler, ’40, and James S. Thornton, all of the class of 1942.

The banquet featured an address by President Albert A. Schaefer and short speeches by President Karl T. Compton and the retiring Senior Board, including President, Frederick B. Grant, ’38, Joseph E. Matz, ’39, and George L. Winans, ’39, all of the class of 1939, as toastmaster.

The staff of Technique assembled at the Coplay-Paine at 6:15 while a cocktail party was being held for the guests and the board members. The banquet began at 6:45, at the conclusion of which the new boards were announced and the speeches were heard.

The invited guests included Dr. and Mrs. Compton, Professor and Mrs. Schaefer, Professor, Mrs. Frank, ’39, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Steinhilber, ’38, Mr. and Mrs. Pektor, ’38, Mr. and Mrs. E. Beard, ’39, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Bower, ’39, Mr. and Mrs. J. Irwin, ’37, Mr. and Mrs. Pektor, ’38, Mr. and Mrs. Gladding, ’39.

Dr. and Mrs. Schaefer, President and Mrs. Albert A. Schaefer.

Institute Debaters Will Meet C.I.T.

National Pump Priming Policy Discussion Will Feature Oregon Style Making the longest trip in the history of the organization, the Technology debating team will meet the Carnegie Institute of Technology team at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Friday night. The question, which will be queried to the two C. I. T. teams, is “That the United States should encourage opposition to foreign feeding to stem late communism. The Technology team was sponsored by the group of the best.

Peter M. Bernard, ’39, retiring president of the National Intercollegiate Debate League and the Carnegie Institute of Technology team, will preside over the debate.

Handbook Material May Be Submitted

The editors of the 1939-1940 Tech Handbook announced yesterday that any activity not previously listed in the Handbook may submit a list of officers and any desired writings. The General Manager, Donald W. Ross, ’40, will receive the Handbook material by the third of March.

Approved List Of Tutors Is Now Being Compiled

The Approved List of Student Tutors has first and second-year subjects is now being compiled for the second year. Application forms should be filled out at the Office of the Dean of Students, Room 356, within the next two weeks.

Donald W. Ross, ’40, was announced General Manager of the Technique at that publication’s annual banquet at the Coplay-Paine last Friday night. The other members of next year’s Managing board will be Marlon Z. Wood, ’41, Editor-in-Chief, and John E. Gray, ’42, Business Manager.

The junior board for next year will include: Charles A. Klezman, Christine F. Crop, Alice Whiting, Wm. M. Bowes, Herbert A. Klein, Proctor E. Gillingham, Robert A. Balmes, John C. Hutzler, ’40, and James S. Thornton, all of the class of 1942.

The banquet featured an address by President Albert A. Schaefer and short speeches by President Karl T. Compton and the retiring Senior Board, including President, Frederick B. Grant, ’38, Joseph E. Matz, ’39, and George L. Winans, ’39, all of the class of 1939, as toastmaster.

The staff of Technique assembled at the Coplay-Paine at 6:15 while a cocktail party was being held for the guests and the board members. The banquet began at 6:45, at the conclusion of which the new boards were announced and the speeches were heard.

The invited guests included Dr. and Mrs. Compton, Professor and Mrs. Schaefer, Professor, Mrs. Frank, ’39, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Steinhilber, ’38, Mr. and Mrs. Pektor, ’38, Mr. and Mrs. E. Beard, ’39, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Bower, ’39, Mr. and Mrs. J. Irwin, ’37, Mr. and Mrs. Pektor, ’38, Mr. and Mrs. Gladding, ’39.

Dr. and Mrs. Schaefer, President and Mrs. Albert A. Schaefer.

Institute Debaters Will Meet C.I.T.

National Pump Priming Policy Discussion Will Feature Oregon Style Making the longest trip in the history of the organization, the Technology debating team will meet the Carnegie Institute of Technology team at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Friday night. The question, which will be queried to the two C. I. T. teams, is “That the United States should encourage opposition to foreign feeding to stem late communism. The Technology team was sponsored by the group of the best.

Peter M. Bernard, ’39, retiring president of the National Intercollegiate Debate League and the Carnegie Institute of Technology team, will preside over the debate.

Handbook Material May Be Submitted

The editors of the 1939-1940 Tech Handbook announced yesterday that any activity not previously listed in the Handbook may submit a list of officers and any desired writings. The General Manager, Donald W. Ross, ’40, will receive the Handbook material by the third of March.

Approved List Of Tutors Is Now Being Compiled

The Approved List of Student Tutors has first and second-year subjects is now being compiled for the second year. Application forms should be filled out at the Office of the Dean of Students, Room 356, within the next two weeks.