Meyers and his orchestra Saturday evening. The highlight of the event was the crowning of Miss Rita Biber, a Simmons' freshman from Palo Alto, Calif., as the Carnival queen.

PHI Nu Delta Wine

Pat Na Dula won the first prize of $12 of beer from the Hale Student Union co-op center with his devices to keep the always brown bottle awake. The second prize of five gallons of beer went to Lambda Chi Alpha for its contraption to make rapid rising for nine o'clock classes. Commendable third prize of ten boxes of cigarettes with its machine to cook and prepare a full sized brisket was for a person who is too lazy to get out of bed.

Wood's apparatus to turn on the light for the busy bookworm and the coffee system for boring hours and getting rid of unwelcome boy friends were also entered in the competition. The door prize, a live duck, was awarded to A. Carleton Jealous, '42.

three gallons of beer went to Lambda Chi Alpha from Palo Alto, Calif., as the only restriction would be in favor of the proposal.

Scholarship for One Year

The proposed scholarship, which would only cover the first year of the arts. If admitted, the student would include expenses incurred by the purchase of books and other necessary equipment, would be awarded to the most deserving boy in any settlement house in Greater Boston. The only restriction would be that the majority of the students would be in favor of the proposal.

Outstanding Combinations

BIG BILL LEE, outstanding for his combination of burning speed, control and games won, and CHESTERFIELD, outstanding for its can't-be-copied combination of the world's best tobaccos.

Chesterfield's can't-be-copied blend makes them outstanding for refreshing mildness... for better taste... for more pleasing aroma... outstanding for real smoking enjoyment.

When you try them you will know why Chesterfields give millions of men and women more smoking pleasure... why THEY Satisfy
