Hearst Trophy Presented at Rifle Banquet

Inventor Describes New Machine Gun And Rifles

HEYMANN WINS "I"

Presentation of the William Ransom-Hearst trophy was the high-point of the annual rifle banquet which was held at the Hotel Victoria last night at 6:30 P.M. The trophy, by drawing eleven other New Entland firms with a score of 20 in to four position, shot match, was given in the name of the man who was five years.

Mr. W. H. Burn, publisher of the hearth papers in Boston, made the presentation of the trophy to Tech-ological and received a national appreciation.

(Continued on Page 3)

Hearst Trophy

Ten Men Elected To 1942 Agenda

Initiation Program Is Given; Fresh Dress As Women, Lead Cats

Explicit from head to foot with the details of feminine attire and heading, this ten member council meet-ning will fulfill its initiation by giving the Freshmen a full initiation.

Inability to meet the president.

Particulars, including dress, story-ing, wig, hat, costume, girls, shoes, and other unmentionables will make the residence. In addition each men will give a special problem a week.

Familial Men Chosen

The Tech House Men Chosen;

Mr. John F. Biffl, a member of the Junior class and Edward H. Bixler, a member of the Sophomore class, were
chosen to preside at the ceremony.

The Freshmen are awaiting
the results of the first round.

More than forty dormitory men
were present for the initiation.

The Freshman skating was
men's initiation.

Mr. John F. Biffl, a member of the Junior class and Edward H. Bixler, a member of the Sophomore class, were
chosen to preside at the ceremony.

The Freshmen are awaiting
the results of the first round.

More than forty dormitory men
were present for the initiation.

The Freshman skating was
men's initiation.

Mr. John F. Biffl, a member of the Junior class and Edward H. Bixler, a member of the Sophomore class, were
chosen to preside at the ceremony.

The Freshmen are awaiting
the results of the first round.

More than forty dormitory men
were present for the initiation.

The Freshman skating was
men's initiation.

Mr. John F. Biffl, a member of the Junior class and Edward H. Bixler, a member of the Sophomore class, were
chosen to preside at the ceremony.

The Freshmen are awaiting
the results of the first round.

More than forty dormitory men
were present for the initiation.

The Freshman skating was
men's initiation.

Mr. John F. Biffl, a member of the Junior class and Edward H. Bixler, a member of the Sophomore class, were
chosen to preside at the ceremony.

The Freshmen are awaiting
the results of the first round.

More than forty dormitory men
were present for the initiation.

The Freshman skating was
men's initiation.

Mr. John F. Biffl, a member of the Junior class and Edward H. Bixler, a member of the Sophomore class, were
chosen to preside at the ceremony.

The Freshmen are awaiting
the results of the first round.