As Bennis Hall Trails
A Close Second

With only a few games left to play, the situation is becoming clearer and clearer for the leader position in the Dorrer Baye watch tournament. At present, Phi Mu Delta is leading with 114 Bennis Hall close behind them. The first place of the final round was taken by the Phi Mu Delta versus Bennis Delta in a score of 0-6. The struggle was close with several of questionable decisions.

Football May Come To Institute Next Fall According To Rumors

If rumors that are reaching around Tech's gloomy halls bear any kernel of truth, football fans here next fall will not be disappointed. A special committee has made it its business to see if we get a football team here next fall.

The nation's most popular collegiate sport still bears promise in the last thirty-sixty-fourths of the season. In II and 1938, Tech won the coveted Robert W. Vose Cup, won by Lawrence W. Kelbley, for the second year running.
