War Cats Hopes Of Soccer Team

Turkish Star May Have To Return At Last

Army In War

War may take its toll, it appears, when Coach Malinoff Grattke calls out both the freshman and varsity soccer teams for fall practice on the Tech field Monday afternoon. Ziya M. Kirmaz, star player on last year’s varsity, expects to be called in to the colors in his native Turkey any day. He will return as soon as the reserves are called out.

The team’s chances for this year are dwindled even further when it was learned today that O’Cockc-ily Edward J. Butcher, star center half back, had died in the Colorado School of Mines. He was one of the most valuable players on last year’s team and will be very hard to replace.

Besides these two men the varsity loses George G. Million and Alex G. Laker, who graduated, and Raymond C. Poutar, full back who will not return to the Institute. On the other hand John L. Dandridge is coming out after a longer absence and is expected to strengthen the team considerably.

Expect Banner Year

In spite of the loss of some of the best players on the varsity team, rejoined by members of last year’s freshman squad, expect a good showing this season. Co-Captains John G. Bergstrom and Allen H. Lasker, who graduated, and Raymond C. Poutar, full back who will not return to the Institute. On the other hand John L. Dandridge is coming out after a longer absence and is expected to strengthen the team considerably.
