Al Donahue will Bring To Walker Memorial For Annual Field Band Oct. 27 Night Dance

Activities Will Be Planned For Year; Elections At Meeting

Dr. K. T. Compton To Address 3:15 Wednesday, 5 p.m.

President Karl T. Compton will speak on "Extra-curricular Services Rendered by M.I.T. to the Community" in the F. A. - I. D. Speaker in the Fanning Dining Room, Wednesday afternoon at 3:15.

Donahue Will Bring To Walker Memorial For Annual Field Band Oct. 27 Night Dance

Al Donahue and his Rainbow Room group are scheduled to appear at Walker Memorial's Field Day Dance. It was announced recently that Walker Memorial's entire facilities will be available on the night of October 27, from noon to 2 a.m. for events attending the affaire.

Options Next Monday

Options Monday night will go on sale Monday, October 8, at 3:15. Tickets will be sold at the following rates: 5 for $1; 10 for $1.50; 20 for $2.50; and 50 for $6.00. For those who cannot attend the dance, the Rainbow Room will be open to non-ticket holders from 6:30 to 10:00 p.m.

Whole Building Facilities To Be Reserved For Dance

Walker Memorial's entire facilities will be available on the night of October 27, from noon to 2 a.m. for events attending the affaire.

Popular Band

Donahue and his orchestra have been growing more popular with the students every year. With the ever-growing list of fans, the Rainbow Room is expected to be packed to the floor on October 27 for the annual formal.

Class Of '43 Plans Soph Slaughter

At the first informal freshman Field Day Rally to be held Thursday at 5:30 p.m., the class of '43 will make initial plans for their Field Day activities. They have already called their first rally for next Tuesday.

The Tech Smoker To Be Held Today

Freshmen To Be Introduced To Newspaper Activities At Technology

By special arrangement, The Tech smoker for freshmen in charge of activities in the Tech smoker and the installation of new darkroom equipment.

Drumshop's Own Movie To Be Shown at Smoker

The Drumshop's own movie, "The Drumshop on Parade," will be shown at the annual Freshmen Formal at Walker Memorial. The movie, produced by the Drumshop, will be held next Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 in the Rainbow Room. Freshmen and other interested students will be invited to attend.

New men will get off to a flying start in their new year when they will be held next Thursday and Friday evenings from 4 to 9 p.m. in the three new set rooms to be given November 1 and 4 and by new members.

Other highlights on a full schedule for the remainder of the presentations of a Broadway show, "The Night of Jantuary 14," which will be presented December 7, 8, and 10. "A Christmas Carol," the play, was given March 14, 15, and 16.

Drumshop's Own Movie To Be Shown at Smoker

The Drumshop's own movie, "The Drumshop on Parade," will be shown at the annual Freshmen Formal at Walker Memorial. The movie, produced by the Drumshop, will be held next Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 in the Rainbow Room. Freshmen and other interested students will be invited to attend.

New men will get off to a flying start in their new year when they will be held next Thursday and Friday evenings from 4 to 9 p.m. in the three new set rooms to be given November 1 and 4 and by new members.

Other highlights on a full schedule for the remainder of the presentations of a Broadway show, "The Night of Jantuary 14," which will be presented December 7, 8, and 10. "A Christmas Carol," the play, was given March 14, 15, and 16.

Bicycles to Paris

After spending several days in Belgium, Malcolm S. Stevens, 34, of the Mechanical Engineering department, will return to Paris by bicycle on the third hundred mile trip to Paris. Malcolm, who was the first American to cross the French-Swiss border which was opened for the first time in history, has already completed three of the nine planned journeys.

Stevens, '34, Sights With Relief At Escape From War Zones

Breathing a sigh of relief, Malcolm S. Stevens, '34, of the Mechanical Engineering department, will return to Paris by bicycle on the third hundred mile trip to Paris. Malcolm, who was the first American to cross the French-Swiss border which was opened for the first time in history, has already completed three of the nine planned journeys.

Stevens, '34, Sights With Relief At Escape From War Zones

Breathing a sigh of relief, Malcolm S. Stevens, '34, of the Mechanical Engineering department, will return to Paris by bicycle on the third hundred mile trip to Paris. Malcolm, who was the first American to cross the French-Swiss border which was opened for the first time in history, has already completed three of the nine planned journeys.

Stevens, '34, Sights With Relief At Escape From War Zones

Breathing a sigh of relief, Malcolm S. Stevens, '34, of the Mechanical Engineering department, will return to Paris by bicycle on the third hundred mile trip to Paris. Malcolm, who was the first American to cross the French-Swiss border which was opened for the first time in history, has already completed three of the nine planned journeys.

Stevens, '34, Sights With Relief At Escape From War Zones

Breathing a sigh of relief, Malcolm S. Stevens, '34, of the Mechanical Engineering department, will return to Paris by bicycle on the third hundred mile trip to Paris. Malcolm, who was the first American to cross the French-Swiss border which was opened for the first time in history, has already completed three of the nine planned journeys.

Stevens, '34, Sights With Relief At Escape From War Zones

Breathing a sigh of relief, Malcolm S. Stevens, '34, of the Mechanical Engineering department, will return to Paris by bicycle on the third hundred mile trip to Paris. Malcolm, who was the first American to cross the French-Swiss border which was opened for the first time in history, has already completed three of the nine planned journeys.

Stevens, '34, Sights With Relief At Escape From War Zones

Breathing a sigh of relief, Malcolm S. Stevens, '34, of the Mechanical Engineering department, will return to Paris by bicycle on the third hundred mile trip to Paris. Malcolm, who was the first American to cross the French-Swiss border which was opened for the first time in history, has already completed three of the nine planned journeys.

Stevens, '34, Sights With Relief At Escape From War Zones

Breathing a sigh of relief, Malcolm S. Stevens, '34, of the Mechanical Engineering department, will return to Paris by bicycle on the third hundred mile trip to Paris. Malcolm, who was the first American to cross the French-Swiss border which was opened for the first time in history, has already completed three of the nine planned journeys.

Stevens, '34, Sights With Relief At Escape From War Zones

Breathing a sigh of relief, Malcolm S. Stevens, '34, of the Mechanical Engineering department, will return to Paris by bicycle on the third hundred mile trip to Paris. Malcolm, who was the first American to cross the French-Swiss border which was opened for the first time in history, has already completed three of the nine planned journeys.

Stevens, '34, Sights With Relief At Escape From War Zones

Breathing a sigh of relief, Malcolm S. Stevens, '34, of the Mechanical Engineering department, will return to Paris by bicycle on the third hundred mile trip to Paris. Malcolm, who was the first American to cross the French-Swiss border which was opened for the first time in history, has already completed three of the nine planned journeys.