Field Day Dinner Scheduled Friday

The annual Field Day Banquet, at which all participants in the events, coaches, managers, and officials invited, will be held on the evening of Thursday, September 27, in the North Hall of Walker Memorial. announced Walter B. Keith, Jr., Chairman of Field Day.

Most important event of the short program which is scheduled to be followed by the presentation of the Cadet Medals, presented through a stand given by Samuel Cabot, Jr., to the five members of the class of '42 who showed the greatest physical improvement during their freshman year.

Units Class Spirit

The purpose of the banquet, which is held every year, is to join a friendly group which has been struggling against one another to gain the coveted Field Day victory. The dinner is the presentation of class spirit into a strong feeling for friendly group those who have been made the greatest strides in physical improvement last year.

Charles At. Prohaska, Arthur Jr., Frederick M. Dierks, Wallace E. Cabot, 1870, and once a member of the Club, was established in 1901 by Samuel Cabot, Jr., has been the chairman of the debate, Stanford G. Hopkins, and President of the Technology Society of America, Dr. William F. Boos. "War-time or peace-time strength" showed the afternoon.

Military Society Picks New Men

Thirty-six Juniors and Seniors from H.T. were elected to the Science and Sailing and Field Day Banquet, which will be held Wednesday, October 25, in Walker Memorial.

Debate

(Continued from Page 1)

"Resolved that the government should have the exclusive right in the manufacture and sale of opium and morphia of war."

Called a Misunderstanding

"As an understanding," the radio explained in the middle of a conversation. "A misunderstanding," the radio explained in the middle of a conversation.

Cigarettes to every town, hamlet and crossroads.

Chesterfields, regardless of how small, is handled by people who live, work and achieve, and Chesterfield takes its tobacco... opens Doors to fields where people live, work & Achieve.

IT IS ESTIMATED that there are 1,102,000 tobacco farmers raising tobacco in 20 out of the 49 states. Good tobacco is one of the largest crops to raise and bring to market, requiring great skill and patience from seed-bed planting to harvesting and curing. The modern tobacco farmer has done well the job of constantly improving the quality of his product.

The AVERAGE LENGTH of service of the 13,200 people working in the Chesterfield factories, storage houses, leaf-handling and rehandling plants is years. This means that every step in the making of Chesterfield, regardless of how small, is handled by people who have had 10 years of experience and ability in knowing their jobs.

TRULY TOBACCO OPENS DOORS to fields where people live, work and achieve, and Chesterfield takes pride in its ever increasing part in this great industry that is devoted entirely to the pleasure of the American public's desire.

Tobacco... does not open doors to fields where people live, work and achieve, and Chesterfield takes pride in its ever increasing part in this great industry that is devoted entirely to the pleasure of the American public's desire.

Copyright 1939, Loeyer & Myers Tobacco Co.