Many Candidates Out for Fencing

Joseph Levis, '26, Will Coach Largest Fencing Group In Many Years

With the largest turnout in a number of years, the fencing team started off the season yesterday evening with a lecture in the West Lounge of Walker Memorial.

There are at least fifty-five men trying out for the team, of which twenty are freshmen. The varisty is strong; with all but one of last year's men back, and the prospects of winning most of the matches on this year's schedule are very good.

New Coach Was Champ

The coach this year is Joseph Levis, '26, one of the outstanding fencers in the country, and several times intercollegiate champion. Mr. Levis is taking over the duties of last year's coach, Giovanni Marcerata, an Italian Army Reserve officer, who is being detained in Italy because of the war.

The T.C.A. is now in operation.

in appreciation of a possible contributor. In his talk, he explained that although he has had little experience in soliciting, he has often been asked to do it. This process is repeated until one obtains a majority. He is thus elected. His name is then taken off and the ballots are re-distributed. The whole process is then repeated until another has gained a majority.
