Institute Men To Give Talks For A.I.C.E. on.

SESSION FOR STUDENTS

Three members of the Department of Chemical Engineering at Texas A&M have been invited to read papers at the annual American Institute of Chemical Engineers convention to be held this week in Providence, Rhode Island. Following is a report of this week's convention.

Seven Students To Attend

The student branch of the A.I.C.E.- Beta Chi chapter at Texas A&M's College of Engineering, will be represented by seven students at the convention. Professors F. E. Shive, J. D. Wirth, and W. C. Peck will also be present as a permanent advisory committee to the students. The students who will attend are: Robert G. Milnes, T. P. Evers, E. B. Dyer, John W. Peabody, J. M. LeBolt, L. W. Whelan, and John B. Dyer. The new students who will attend are: John M. LeBolt, John W. Peabody, and Robert T. Peabody. The new students who will attend are: John M. LeBolt, John W. Peabody, and Robert T. Peabody.

Dramashop's Fall Production To Be Murder Mystery

Juried Selected From Audiences

With Judges On Witness's Testimonies

Pledges To Gridiron Due

High Speed Photography Subject of Talk on Thursday At 5

Cabin-Users Could Form Line 2 Miles Long at T.C.A. Office

Legal Problems To Be Subject

Professor Schaefer to Give Third Lecture On Marriage

Studying to legal considerations of the topic, the T.C.A.'s lecturer on marriage this week will be Professor Albert A. Schaefer, of the Department of Business and Engineering Law at Texas A&M.

Initiates Quizné Daily

By Seaboard And Blade

Numerous quizzes on Military subjects will be open to members of the sophomore class for a week at the Sorority House and Student Union. Questions will be phrased in the form of crossword puzzles, and the answers will be found in the Daily News.

Options Will Be Redeemed Next Thursday in Main Lobby

"The Sophomore Swingingo" is the name given to the special program for sophomores on the campus. On Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the Engineering Union, all sophomores will be presented with a "Swingingo" card which will be redeemed the following Thursday in Main Lobby.

Plans Are Reserved

Now In Cashier's Office

On Witnesses' List, Helen O'Connell, accord

SOPHOS DANCE IS CHRISTENED 'SWINGEROO'

By Bill Williams

Grandma would be proud of the latest "Swingeroo" to hit the campus. This year's Sophomore Dance is being christened "Swingeroo" and is scheduled for October 30th.

Ralph Dabney, president of the sophomore class, has been selected as "Swingeroo" chairman. He will head up a committee of eight classmates who will handle all arrangements for the dance.