Stratton Prize Contest Setup Is Announced
All Professional Societies To Hold Eliminations During February
EVERYONE ELIGIBLE
The eliminations for the ten arts and sciences, according to a list on page 18, have begun, and the first step is the preparation for the Stratton Prize contest, which is sponsored by the Stratton Prize Committee. The contest was established in 1931 by the late Dr. Stratton, then president of the Institution, in order to encourage public speaking by the student body. Five of the winning talks will be the finalist, after which the winner will be determined, followed by the second and third prizes.

Tech Gunnem Sweep Match
Varsity Wins Over Five Teams in Season's First Meet

Overwhelmingly five other teams, including the highly rated M.I.T. Faculty Team, the Tech Varsity Football team, the Tech Varsity Fencing team, the Tech Varsity Basketball team, and the Tech Varsity Tennis team, were defeated by the Tech Varsity football team in the first meet of the season.

M.I.T. Debaters Will Meet Three Teams This Week
Middlebury, Radcliffe, and Vermont University Are Opponents

With three debates scheduled, the M.I.T. Debaters will start their season in earnest this weekend. The opponents will be the Yale College Debaters, the University of Vermont, and Radcliffe College.

Christmas Dance Will Be On Dec. 15
Larry Lane's Band Is To Play In Walker Memorial
From 9 to 1

The annual Downtown Christmas Dance will be held this year on December 15, and Larry Lane's band will be featured. The students and faculty members are invited to attend.

Radio Society Will Hold Lecture On Transmitters

"Television Lines and Their Application to Modern High Frequency Radiotelegraphy" will be the subject of a talk to be given by the Radio Society at 8:00 P.M. in the Main Library. The lecture will be given by Mr. Withy, an engineer in the development department of the General Electric Company.

Magnetism Final Lecture
T.C.A. Fall Series Concludes With Discussion Of Expositions

"Exposition, Going Ousted, and Expositions up the Three periods of on the art of exposition," was presented by Professor F. Alexander Magun of the department of English, in the final lecture of the T.C.A. fall series, Tuesday afternoon in room 10-250.

Vocalists Will Be Helen O'Connell, Bob Eberly

Attention is Expected To Be Over 300 Couples

While theswas the Downstage Christmas Dance will swing under way at 6:00 p.m., the Cotillion Club, for the first time, will continue until 12:00 a.m. with an announcement for 11:00 a.m. and 12:45 a.m. It is expected that 400 will attend since their dances on the ballroom tickets were sold for $5.00 a ticket. The arrangements of the task has been greatly accelerated by the number of men in other classes and every graduate who was able to be here.

Tutus Assigned In Three Groups

Tutu assignments are being made among the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes, and committees. Opera house will be convened in the dormitories under the supervision of about 50% of the fraternities.

Closeup for this occasion is Fredo M. and Mrs. Walter H. Sruck. (Continued on Page 4)

January 18, 1931

Ten Cents A Copy Offer Is Made For Back Issues

The Tech will pay ten cents per copy for the following issues:
No. 32 September 22, 1930
No. 33 October 4, 1930
No. 34 October 25, 1930
Any person with these issues may receive copies for their original price.

T.C.A. Assistance Favoured By Poll

Freshman Camp Advisors Approved By Return of Turf

The results of the recent T. C. A. poll showed that the only freshman advisor system that was very office was that followed by the system of faculty. The large number of candidates for the position of faculty advisor was decided upon by 51.8 per cent of the freshmen during the week before the freshers were all sent to all fresh- men.

Jill Had Personal Meetings

The freshman advisor system over the fall of the freshmen and personal meetings had been arranged for. The advisor was to be contacted through letter. In reply to the question of the value in the magazine, "Intramural" to the new students, two-thirds of the class of '41 felt that they received benefit from the publication.

"Allocate" or "An Atomy of Love" Not "The Hot Pinafore"

The new play, "Allocate" or "An Atomy of Love," was presented at the annual Sophomore Play in Walker Memorial Hall.

The President of the Institute (de- scribed as "the Monarch of the Sea") was played by Lynnwood Bryant, who sang to the tune of "I am the Monarch of the Sea." The song was an original creation by Dr. Stratton Prize Contest was established in 1931 by the late Dr. Stratton, then president of the Institution, in order to encourage public speaking by the student body. Five of the winning talks will be the finalist, after which the winner will be determined, followed by the second and third prizes.

Faculty Minics Institute Life In Club's Multi-Titled Operetta

"Allocate" or "An Atomy of Love" was the subject of the annual Sophomore Play in Walker Memorial Hall, December 12.

The Tech will pay ten cents per copy for the following issues:
No. 32 September 22, 1930
No. 33 October 4, 1930
No. 34 October 25, 1930
Any person with these issues may receive copies for their original price.

T.C.A. Assistance Favoured By Poll

Freshman Camp Advisors Approved By Return of Turf

The results of the recent T. C. A. poll showed that the only freshman advisor system that was very office was that followed by the system of faculty. The large number of candidates for the position of faculty advisor was decided upon by 51.8 per cent of the freshmen during the week before the freshers were all sent to all fresh- men.

Jill Had Personal Meetings

The freshman advisor system over the fall of the freshmen and personal meetings had been arranged for. The advisor was to be contacted through letter. In reply to the question of the value in the magazine, "Intramural" to the new students, two-thirds of the class of '41 felt that they received benefit from the publication.

"Allocate" or "An Atomy of Love" Not "The Hot Pinafore"

The new play, "Allocate" or "An Atomy of Love," was presented at the annual Sophomore Play in Walker Memorial Hall.

The President of the Institute (de- scribed as "the Monarch of the Sea") was played by Lynnwood Bryant, who sang to the tune of "I am the Monarch of the Sea." The song was an original creation by Dr. Stratton Prize Contest was established in 1931 by the late Dr. Stratton, then president of the Institution, in order to encourage public speaking by the student body. Five of the winning talks will be the finalist, after which the winner will be determined, followed by the second and third prizes.

Faculty Minics Institute Life In Club's Multi-Titled Operetta

"Allocate" or "An Atomy of Love" was the subject of the annual Sophomore Play in Walker Memorial Hall, December 12.