T. C. A. Plans New Budget After Failure

Revision Methods Subject of Cabinet Meeting Last Week

DIVISIONS CUT EXPENSES

Methods of reducing certain expenses were discussed at the T.C.A. Wednesday, November 24. Although the students were unable to meet the T.C.A. expenses at that time, the students were required to present their proposals at the next meeting. The division which proposed the least amount would be allowed to keep their divisional budget, and the students were encouraged to consider the possible effects of the cuts on their activities.

It was decided that each division manager would meet with the T.C.A. and present their budget proposals. The budget for each division was reduced, and the students were required to present their proposals at the next meeting. The division which proposed the least amount would be allowed to keep their divisional budget, and the students were encouraged to consider the possible effects of the cuts on their activities.

Ice-bus Falls Down; Raspberry Boomerangs On Armor Tech

Focus at Armor Tech are a bit on the crinkly side. A student bus, while on its way to the Union, encountered a snow cruiser on its journey. The bus was too large to fit on the cruisers' paths, and the bus accidentally hit the cruiser's side mirror. The students were required to present their proposals at the next meeting.
