Senior Week Option Sales Begin Today

"Life Begins With '40" Theme Of Program, Plays Prominent Role

SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

"Life Begins With '40" has been staged as the theme of Senior Week activities. On Friday, May 31, the Senior Class will conduct several events under this heading. The department sales will begin at 11:00, each option representing 16% of the total cost of the week's events. This discount ticket costs $8.00, 30% of the total cost of the individual events presents to O.H.S.

The annual Sale On Saturday Option sales will continue until Sunday, though this will not be the final chance to obtain them. They will be sold again in March at a reduced price. All sales will take place in May, 1949.

The program for Senior Week has been greatly amplified by the opening of the new Union. On Friday, May 22, the Senior Union will be held, while on the following Saturday, June 1, will be Tech week. The Student Christian Movement will take place on Sunday.

Technology Team Is Favored

The probable intercollegiate basketball team starting against Harvard is composed of last year's veterans. They are, from east wing, Creamer, Samuelson, and rear row, Farwell and Wilson.

Probable Line-ups Listed

For Game With Harvard

The probable line-up for tonight's basketball game as given by Tech's coach, Harry P. McCarth, and by The Harvard Crimson are as follows:

Technology Harvard Crimson Eleven
HarvardFarwell, R. A., Romano, 31
T. Creamer, Capt., 40, R.G.
L. F. Webster, 42
D. Wilson, Jr. C. B. Fingens, 41
S. Girks, R. F.
C. Lata, Capt., 41
H. Samuel, L. F.
E. Buckley, 41
W. Webster, 41

Choral Music

Will Be Given

Wellesley To Be Guests Of Institute Glee Club Friday

A concert of choral music free of charge to the public will be given by the Wellesley College Choir and the Institute Glee Club sponsored by the M.I.T. Student Union next Friday at 8:30 P.M. in the Main Hall of Walker Memorial. This concert will be under Dr. Samuel Shaw, after a tour of several years of the popular joint concerts of the Institute and Wellesley musical groups.

The program will begin promptly at 8:20 P.M. with the combined choirs singing "Oh Rejoice Ye Christians" by Bach, and "Then Round About" by Martin. (Continued on Page 4)

Audience To Be
On Murder Jurv

Previously Chosen Faculty Members To Serve During Trial

A jury chosen by lot from the audience in the case of theatre of the opera, "The Night of January 16", is to be presented by the Drama Club on Friday and Saturday nights in Room 10-40 at 8:30 P.M. The cast will be composed of members of the previous year's drama and musical groups.

The faculty members for Friday evening include Professor Donald B. Freeman, Professor Richard B. Laws, Professor Charles E. Ruckstuhl, and Professor Robert L. Beavers, 39 as members of the chorus. The audience used polaroid chrome. The audience used polaroid chrome. The audience used polaroid chrome. The audience used polaroid chrome. The audience used polaroid chrome.

Mag. is Elected

Photo Club Head

The newly formed Technology Amateur Club elected North Memo, 41, as its first president. Alan E. Burdick, 41, was elected vice-president, and Arthur J. Weinzweig, 41, as secretary-treasurer, at a meeting last Tuesday in the Room 40-56 of the Student Union.

Professor John T. Pole, head of the department of Drawing, was the speaker at the meeting. He talked on stereoscopic projection and demonstrated some of his equipment. With the aid of a double projector, equipped with polaroid filters, Mr. Rogers of the Harvard Chemical Society showed several astronomical slides taken on a Kodachrome. The audience used polaroid chrome. The audience used polaroid chrome. The audience used polaroid chrome.

Professor Slater Speaks

To Physicists Wednesday

Professor John C. Slater, head of the department of Physics, will speak in the name of the institute to the Physical Society, Wednesday, at 5:30 in Room 40-25.

The subject of Professor Slater's talk will be "Physics As I See It". All students are invited to attend and to arrive as promptly as possible. A very interesting meeting has been promised by the executive committee of the society.

C.A.A. Students Start Flying

After Weather Causes Delay

Actual flight work in the Civil Aeronautics Authority training course will commence today at the East Boston Naval Air Station. A small group of students weather prevented the start of the program yesterday.

The course is designed to give a first-class first class training course in flying. It is being held in two sessions from 7:00 in the morning until the late afternoon. A total of 16 hours of flying instruction is required, with the minimum requirement for a solo flight being 4 hours of flying. There are 15 participants.

Additional students of the class and instructor for the course will be announced from time to time in the future.

Professor Richard B. Laws, official representative of the C.A.A. for Technology, with the aid of Professor Robert L. Beavers, 39, Charles E. Ruckstuhl, and Charles E. Ruckstuhl, 39, are to serve as guides for the tour which will consist of four sections of the laboratory, the electronics laboratory, the electronic laboratory, the electronic laboratory, and the electronics laboratory.

Unusual Fee Set

For Xmas Dance

"Our study of supply and demand curves showed that $11.95 in the ideal ticket price", explained Charles H. Webster. "We believe that the price of $12.00 is the perfect Christmas Dance Committee, that night, as our guest speaker for the evening, and the night's entertainment is to be held December 12th in the Main Hall of Walker Memorial.

The tickets will be placed on sale tomorrow evening in the main lobby and will be sold there each day from 12 noon to 6:00 P.M. until the end of next week. For the entertainment of the dormitory dance committee will also sell tickets.

Larry Lane Will Play

Larry Lane's eleven piece orchestra, the same band that played for the dormitory freshman dance, will furnish sweet swing music, with a selection of dance music, for any event of the dormitory freshman dance.

T. C. A. To Erect

Christmas Tree

Following a custom of many years, the Technology Christmas Association will erect a Christmas tree in the Main Lobby for the holiday season. It is to remain in place for the last week of December and through the Christmas vacation.

The three members of the committee, Joseph C. Greenberg, 39, and Charles E. Ruckstuhl, 40, are to serve as guides for the tour which will consist of four sections of the laboratory, the electronic laboratory, the electronic laboratory, and the electronics laboratory.

Resolution Sponsored

The Student Christian Movement has sponsored a resolution primarily intended as a resolution for those who are interested in the Jewish movement, on Tuesday, December 11, in the North Hall of Walker. The speaker at the meeting is to be Dr. Kasimir of Chicago.

6-C.G. Men Hold Dance

On Friday in 5:15 Room

The Technology chapter of the Associated General Contractors will hold a dance for the high school students, next Friday at 8:30 P.M. in the 5:15 Room.

The dance will be for members of the society and their guests. The dance will be held from noon to 1:00 P.M.