New Hampshire Forms Threat To Unbeaten Basket Ball Quintet

Talented Craftsmen Reportedly Close Match

The New Hampshire quintet, which has been defeated by several of the country's outstanding basketball teams, is expected to provide some of the best competition of the year for the Unbeaten Boston College quintet, which has already beaten Yale, Harvard, and Dartmouth.

Boston College, which has been unbeaten in the last five games, is expected to meet a strong challenge from the New Hampshire quintet, which has won all but one of its games this season.

- Rivalries Will Mark Yale Squash Match Tomorrow

A propitious rivalry will be rekindled tomorrow afternoon when the Yale squash team plays host to a strong Yale team.

The rivalry will be between the two captains, Bob Miller, '46, and the captain of the Yale team, Gordon Bissel.

Although the Yale team lost their first match this season, and Yale has only two matches of the year, the matches are expected to provide plenty of excitement with the match between the two captains as the exciting event.

The lineup will be as follows:

Yale: Bob Miller, '46; Gordon Bissel, '45; Walter Wondolowicz, '46; Robert Wondolowicz, '47; and George Wondolowicz, '48.
