I. M. S. Society Elects Officers for 1940

The Intercollegiate Mission Society held an election of officers for 1940 at its last regular monthly meeting on Saturday night.
Albert L. K. Greenes, '42, was elected as chairman of the Executive Committee. Two Sinatrous girls were chosen for two of the positions: Pheas Ctimate, Vice Chairman, and Betty Hyde, Secretary-Treasurer. The other members elected are David Shejennan, '42, as Social Activities Chairman, and Mary A. K. K. H. as Dance Committee Chairman.
