Second Half Jinx Again Costs Game

Tibbs Scores 18 Points In Second Half To Beat Tech

The Tech basketball quintet finally scored a victory this season Saturday when it defeated the University of Washington basketball team, 52-34, at the South End Gymnasium. The game was a close battle until about the middle of the second half, when Tibbs of Tech took advantage of a series of fouls to pull Tech to victory.

The game started off with both teams assassinating each other. Then the score increased until the game was 6-2 in favor of Tech. The two teams exchanged baskets and Tech took over, 14-13. Again, the score was 26-20, when Tech rallied by 72-60, with one more period left in the game. After that, Tech was in the lead, at 43-34, and the final score was 52-34.

In the first half, Tech led through most of the time, and the score was close, 14-13, with one period left in the half. At the end of the half, there were 15 fouls and 15 points scored, 26-20, with Tech in the lead.

In the second half, Tech continued to lead, and the score was 43-34, with one period left in the game. The final score was 52-34.

The game was a close battle until about the middle of the second half, when Tibbs of Tech took advantage of a series of fouls to pull Tech to victory.

- The game started off with both teams assassinating each other. Then the score increased until the game was 6-2 in favor of Tech.
- The two teams exchanged baskets and Tech took over, 14-13. Again, the score was 26-20, when Tech rallied by 72-60, with one more period left in the game. After that, Tech was in the lead, at 43-34, and the final score was 52-34.
- In the first half, Tech led through most of the time, and the score was close, 14-13, with one period left in the half. At the end of the half, there were 15 fouls and 15 points scored, 26-20, with Tech in the lead.
- In the second half, Tech continued to lead, and the score was 43-34, with one period left in the game. The final score was 52-34.

The game was a close battle until about the middle of the second half, when Tibbs of Tech took advantage of a series of fouls to pull Tech to victory.