GLEN GRAY AND HIS COLUMBIA ORCHESTRA WILL PLAY AT STATER FOR FORMAL MARCH 1

Tickets Price Set At $4.90; Options Are $2.50
Option Sale Restricted To Juniors Begins Tomorrow

Glen Gray and his Casa Loma orchestra will provide the music for this year's Junior Prom, the committee responsible announced Tuesday afternoon.

After months of anticipation, the Glen Gray and Casa Loma orchestra, featuring the singing of Pro. Nell New, was selected to play Friday, March 1, in the formal spring dance at Stater. The Prom will last from 7 to 11 P.M. and conclude with a New Year's toast.

Tickets $4.90

Tickets to the affair will cost $4.90, $2.50 for the option and the remaining $4.50 for the retention.

Options which will be restricted to Juniors for the first two days, begin tomorrow at 8:15 a.m. in the Main Lobby. Those who have not already been selected from that hour until 3:30 P.M. on Friday will be admitted to the Prom if their options remain. If their options remain, they will be available to members of all classes on Friday.

In order to prevent the sale of options to other than Juniors on Wednesday and Thursday, purchasers will be required to present Darwin's cards as identification.

Options will be sold in the new orchestra reading room for approximately $1.80 to be available next week, the committee said.

At Paramount

Gray and his band appeared at the Paramount Theatre in New York City last week. Gray, who has described himself as a peacemaker, was on the main stage at the Palais Ballroom in New York, the Glen Island Casino in New Rochelle, N. Y., the Camel Casino in New York and the Bayou Boys and the Ultra radio show.

T. C. A. Provides New Book Exchanges

Service Located in Walker Memorial Basement; $100 Sold

All students wishing to buy or sell textbooks for the spring term are invited to use the T. C. A. Book Exchange, a T. C. A. project, which the headquarters of the Exchange in the T. C. A. will open the basement of Walker Memorial.

As a rule all books are bright and sold at their selling value. Over one hundred dollars worth of books have been bought and sold during the preceding term. Notice were still in the courses of books which have been left indelible to the exchange for over one year, instructing them to call for their books within a month or the T. C. A. will dispose of them as they see fit.

Valor, with a committee appointed for the purpose, will be held in the (Continued on Page 1)

Cosmopolitan Students Bike Through Blue Hills

A blast through the Blue Hills of Milton along the Blue Hills Trail was the program held by the Cosmopolitan Student Club of Milton Saturday, February 8, at 1:30 P.M. After the trail was completed, the group evidence that they had enjoyed the trip.

With happy smiles and a seemingly endless variety of iris, the cream of the crops from the various trees and shrubs returned to the Institute. Having proved that they can take it, having learned more than they probably thought the examination was now a thing of the past; they were ready to begin the long time to try their respective hands in extra-curricular activities.

Offering those symbol and bringing first year men opportunities in a small, outdoor, different field of endeavor ready to absorb and train themselves for the profession, the group will be most beneficial in years to come.

For Opportunity for Contacts

Perhaps the most important of the opportunities which a school newspaper has to offer is that of making friends and acquaintances with faculty activity men, who, as has been shown by many societies will be the leaders of tomorrow. Training in writing and newspaper composition is offered to those who are candidates for the news staff. Find second time in the paper's history, a continuation of the Journalism Club, the semi-monthly paper, will be distributed to every student of the English Department will be offered to new men, will be conducted through a carefully planned training course before they are sent out on assignments.

Has New Engraving Plant

For the convenience of those who attended the Century Band's annual dinner dance, the committee has fulfilled the modern trend and has moved into the Valentine's day from Wednesday, February 11 to you, either to the T. C. A. Book Exchange, a service located in Walker Memorial Basement, or $100 sold.

All students wishing to buy or sell textbooks for the spring term are invited to use the T. C. A. Book Exchange, a T. C. A. project, which the headquarters of the Exchange in the T. C. A. will open the basement of Walker Memorial.

As a rule all books are bright and sold at their selling value. Over one hundred dollars worth of books have been bought and sold during the preceding term. Notice were still in the courses of books which have been left indelible to the exchange for over one year, instructing them to call for their books within a month or the T. C. A. will dispose of them as they see fit.

T. C. A. Provides New Book Exchanges

Service Located in Walker Memorial Basement; $100 Sold

All students wishing to buy or sell textbooks for the spring term are invited to use the T. C. A. Book Exchange, a T. C. A. project, which the headquarters of the Exchange in the T. C. A. will open the basement of Walker Memorial.

As a rule all books are bright and sold at their selling value. Over one hundred dollars worth of books have been bought and sold during the preceding term. Notice were still in the courses of books which have been left indelible to the exchange for over one year, instructing them to call for their books within a month or the T. C. A. will dispose of them as they see fit.

T. C. A. Provides New Book Exchanges

Service Located in Walker Memorial Basement; $100 Sold

All students wishing to buy or sell textbooks for the spring term are invited to use the T. C. A. Book Exchange, a T. C. A. project, which the headquarters of the Exchange in the T. C. A. will open the basement of Walker Memorial.

As a rule all books are bright and sold at their selling value. Over one hundred dollars worth of books have been bought and sold during the preceding term. Notice were still in the courses of books which have been left indelible to the exchange for over one year, instructing them to call for their books within a month or the T. C. A. will dispose of them as they see fit.

T. C. A. Provides New Book Exchanges

Service Located in Walker Memorial Basement; $100 Sold

All students wishing to buy or sell textbooks for the spring term are invited to use the T. C. A. Book Exchange, a T. C. A. project, which the headquarters of the Exchange in the T. C. A. will open the basement of Walker Memorial.

As a rule all books are bright and sold at their selling value. Over one hundred dollars worth of books have been bought and sold during the preceding term. Notice were still in the courses of books which have been left indelible to the exchange for over one year, instructing them to call for their books within a month or the T. C. A. will dispose of them as they see fit.

T. C. A. Provides New Book Exchanges

Service Located in Walker Memorial Basement; $100 Sold

All students wishing to buy or sell textbooks for the spring term are invited to use the T. C. A. Book Exchange, a T. C. A. project, which the headquarters of the Exchange in the T. C. A. will open the basement of Walker Memorial.

As a rule all books are bright and sold at their selling value. Over one hundred dollars worth of books have been bought and sold during the preceding term. Notice were still in the courses of books which have been left indelible to the exchange for over one year, instructing them to call for their books within a month or the T. C. A. will dispose of them as they see fit.