Institute Radio Society
To Hold Dinner Meeting

An election and dinner meeting of the H.E.T. Radio Society will be held tonight at 6:30 P.M. in the Grill room of Walker.

A purpose of tonight's dinner meeting will be the election of officers for this and the following semester. This dinner meeting represents an added emphasis on those attending who will attend in the Walker Cafeteria and carry them to the Grill Room.

Professors to Be Guests

Guests who will participate in the evening's activities include Professors Edward L. Bowen, Wilmer L. Bowers, Harold C. Weber, and Mr. John M. Clary of General Radio Co. of Cambridge.

Please have been provided for these guests in the evening's entertainment, which includes a new radio unit, for which prizes will be awarded.

... with the rest of their schedule—provided they keep their present team spirit. Let's hope also that the boys keep rolling up those long scores in that boys like Ernie Ate, Zephyr Cox, Bel Goldstein, and Dave Cavanaugh will get more experience under fire. Possible, however, accepted the weekend spotlight as far as a gathering prestige for the Techans is concerned. The unorthodox displayed the opening forms as they brushed Harvard and crushed Syracuse. The first home match, incidentally, will be this Saturday, when Captains Johnny Bech, "Cap" Cronin's "Nellie" and Steve统领steamly cross swords with Brown. You'll have to read about this team when the season opens up.

On the ice, we may look for a tight contest against Northeastern tonight. Those sheer-toed glasses that some of our boys wear will probably be well tested, since the last game this season saw Tech on the other side of a 5-0 score. Looking at scores, however, one sees that Tech and Northeastern have beaten New Hamp- shire 4-2 at recent dates—and this with the Engineers minus Neal and Shuller.

Sitting, the spirit of many Tech men was the notion of bringing Tech into the limelight again when our men showed up at Dartmouth against the Engineers minus Shuller.
