Tape Marriage Talk

FILM TO BE SHOWN
Dr. James C. Janney, well known Boston gynecologist, will take charge of the T.C.A.'s marriage lecture quorum and answer period to be held Friday, 8.30 tomorrow afternoon, from 1 to 4 P.M. This question and answer session will follow in sequence the third, fourth and fifth addresses of Professor F. Alexander Maytag, of the Humanities Department, which is to have place Thursday afternoon at 4 P.M. Professor Maytag will illustrate his talk with motion pictures.

Discussed Emotions
Last Tuesday afternoon Professor Maytag discussed the problem of emotional transition which occurs in the world of women and explained the fact that if everyone were to experience the same emotions there would be no problem of emotional adjustment. While explaining this point, Professor Maytag stated that the settings of problems by explicit definition other than with words is the result of the attempt to control emotions.

The "irresponsible" state of women is a consequence of the emotion of which is one concerned, and the tendency to the general picture of women. The nature of the symptoms of which a disease was described to the audience in terms of emotional adjustment and fighting.

A group of emotional mechanisms that face young married women are:
