Quality Gasoline
Hourly Process Discussed In March Issue On Sale

Tomorrow

Premium quality gasoline at regular price is the topic of the feature article: "Quality Gasoliees: Process Discussed In March Issue On Sale."

The process, which recently has been prominent in business and insurance news, will be the subject of two hours of discussion on Wednesday and Thursday, February 27 and 28.

William A. Carleton Jordan, "associate editor of T. E. N., will be present with the Hourly process for explaining the method by which a unusual stock of very high quality gasoline is produced.

"Hourly Process" by Dr. Hersey's new year's function of some unknown gas which has been potted by the editors in the News. As Khare of the next article, the process will be explained to the readers in solving problems of deter-ing.

The development of the process was described in the written in various sections, making of the feature articles of "Quality Gasoline" series.
