Prof. Bunker Will Replace Dr. Goodwin
Presentation of Graduate School Dean to Fare in June

50 YEARS ON STAFF
Dr. John W. Bunker, director of the zoology research laboratory and former dean of the Graduate School, has announced his retirement on May 10 after 50 years of service to the Institute.

THE INSTITUTE'S FIRST FEMALE DEAN
Dr. Bunker will be succeeded by Dr. Mary R. Goodale, who has served as director of the Graduate School since 1931.

Spring Informal Will Be Held On March 29
The Second Annual Spring Dinner sponsored by the Student Union and the domitories, to be held at 5:30 p.m. on March 29, 9:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. in the Main Hill or Walker Memorial.

Trents for the informal dinner, priced at $1.25 per couple, will be at the Main Lobby of Building 10 on March 13, from 11:00 to 2:00 p.m. Members of the committee in charge of the affair will sell the tickets. Roy weekly and the trombones will supply the music.

Bartlett Heads English Dept.
Col. C. T. Marsh Placed In Charge Of Military Science Dept.

Professor Howard R. Bartlett was appointed English department chairman, responsible for the instruction and promotion of the department's activities and for the selection of the faculty. Professor Bartlett has been acting head of the department since the resignation of the late Professor Henry W. Goes.

Mr. Nathaniel H. G. Beale, Placement Officer of Technology, has been appointed officer in charge of the placement activities of the Institute.

Col. Marsh to Head Military Science
Colonel Clarence T. Marshall, of the United States Army, will come to the Institute from a position as assistant to the Secretary of War to head the department of Military Science.

Large Audience Sees Production

Technology's Dramatic Production Edmund Rodney's play "Obsequies of Silence" was given last Friday and Saturday night at Shattuck Hall in Cambridge. The production was done in a capacity theater, with about 800 persons attending performances.

Miss Madeleine Balch Is Honored
Miss Madeleine Balch held the honor of "Queen of the Dance" for "Quincys Hall, the junior women's dormitory, last Friday evening in Walker Memorial.

FRIDAY'S HONOR
Miss Madeleine Balch of Drexel Hill, Mass., was chosen "Queen of Spring" for the thumbs-down Dance of the Technology Student Club held last Friday evening in Walker Memorial.

Dr. John W. Bunker, who has served as director of the Graduate School, will retire in June after a distinguished career of 50 years on the Institute faculty.

John Dean of the Graduate School will succeed Dr. Bunker as director on May 10 after serving as vice director for six years.

Chem. Rental Fees Abolished
Board Disapproves $2500 Appropriation For Tennis Lighting

Inst. Comm. Grant Overruled For First Time

Goldstein Receives Only $650 With Interests

Given A. A.

Deposition of the appropriation of $2,500 for the construction of an ice rink in the Freshman dormitories was rejected at the last Institute Comm. meeting, passed by the Undergraduate Faculty and rejected by the Institute administration.

This is the first time in recent years that the Institute Committee has been overruled for first time.

Frosh Will Hold Formal May 10

Council Names Committees To Arrange Graduation, Refreshments

Plans for the annual freshman formal to be held on Friday, May 1, were formulated at a meeting of the Freshman Council held at the East Lounge last Friday afternoon. Committees were appointed to arrange for the choice of orchestra and to make plans for refreshments and publicity.

Tickets for the dance is to be sold to members of the faculty and upperclassmen for $1.00 per couple. They will be sold by members of the Senior Class and at a desk in the Main Lobby.

In addition, 100 refreshments will be planned for the dance which will be served in the faculty room and in the lounge.

Stouting Fraternity Will Enter Endurance Race

All former alumni have been invited to the annual meeting of the Alpha Phi Omega, honorary drinking fraternity, to be held tomorrow in the Family Room of Walker at 8:00 P.M.

The alumni program will include competing songs and alumni faculty. Plans will also be discussed for the program of the remainder of the year. Current freshman refreshments will be served.