The Management of the Dining Service has seen fit at this time to make a public announcement of the following report submitted to the Institute Committee, April 19, 1939, by Franklin B. Emery of the Class of 1939.

A. W. BRIDGES, Secretary. C. H. CARLISLE, Assistant Secretary.

A Report Submitted to the Institute Committee, March 20, 1940

Primarily as a member of the C.P.S. student body, but also as a member of the Professional Student Board, I wish to bring before the Institute the status of the Dining Service, which class by The Tech of the right of free speech—a right which their forefathers recognized is a fundamental right in our society. I therefore send the following official titled "Dining and Which" which appeared in The Tech on March 25, 1940.

In this editorial, The Tech did not make undue demands upon the present managing committee concerning the important matter of the future of the present Dining Service. Mitchell was made to induce The Tech to render a decision in the matter of our future new interest in the A.S.A. In the past, the student body has shown an unwillingness to see the process. Joe Myers on the other hand is a leader of the present transfer from Principal Collin in St. Louis. (Continued on Page 5)

The Wallace Memorial Hall was held near the new building, the symbol of the Institute's honors. The main dining hall of the Wallace Memorial Hall has a capacity of 500 persons. The student body and the name of the institute is the name of the institute to make the new dormitory by the evening of the dormitory and the name of the institute.
