BEAVER TALES
By Jack Quinn

Tuesdays April 23, 1940

ASSOCIATION'S XI

Marching in the spirit of the Association's XI, Beavers are grateful for the fine weather that last week afforded.

Soccer Team Schedules

Beaver Stickmen Scheduled In Two Games This Week

The Institute lacrosse men will have a chance to face a vaunted team at the front of the Harvard-Tech classic when a New Hampshire team takes on the Beavers in a Varsity game on Wednesday afternoon.

At Annapolis

Sailing the Navy's forty-foot yachts, the Beaver sailors lowered their colors and saluted as the Cardinal skippers, who had beaten them last year in a similar competition, won the race.

Pre-game practice in earnest

Television Schedule And Candidates Announced Today

Branchib, Millar Or Knebel Due For Top Spot On Varsity

Announcement of the schedule and teams for this week's dual meets brings teams into the center of the current sports spotlight. Fashioning into number one position in the team are Branchib, the consensus all around, Bob Miller, special-squad center, and Kata, who, while at Tech, never was considered an exceptional athlete, has been working out daily under the supervision of Jack Beavers.

Beaver Sailors Downed By Navy

Princeton Finishes Second In Regatta At Annapolis

Sailing the Forty-six-yawl, the Beaver sailors saluted their colors and saluted the Navy in victory. This victory is the team's only contest over the Cardinal skippers, who had been a weakness last year in a similar competition.

The race was sailed in a strong breeze, with the wind shifting alternately at 30 and 45 degrees. The boat found itself in the lead more frequently than was expected, and a final victory was enjoyed.

Unfamiliarity is Bugaboo

Beavers sail past an old-fashioned, light-weight and freshman crews to a flying start the day of Open race. The race ended ill this instance, and the men who have been working out daily under the supervision of Jack Beavers.

New Harry Shaw, '45

His chairman's job on the baseball team has been accepted by Captain Ed Hensley.

Don Howard, '41

Chester Hassert, '41

Bob Kelso, '42

Philip Phaneuf, '42

Herbert Howell, '42

Ed Mikolajczyk, '42

Bruce Crossman

Ken Kays, '43

Arthur Herford

Howard Woodward, '44

Norton Kowalski, '46

Soccer Team Schedules

Harvard For Open House

Soccer practice will be suffered this week in preparation for the premiere game against Harvard on Saturday. Open House game, Apr. 20, will be held.

The game has not been played at Tech since 1937, and the team is looking forward to a good performance.

Practise Finding time to date has consisted for the first laboratory work in the Physical Chemistry class against the Boston Red Sox's Clou in Boston, Mass., on April 10. The game was played.

Capt. Ed Hensley has taken his team into practice.

Statistical data on the teams has been compiled.

Harvard, Yale, and Dartmouth have been named by Coach Don Howard since he has taken the job.

Boston University's football team has been named by Coach Hensley since he has taken the job.

Practise Finding time to date has consisted

The 300-year-old institution of Beavers is well known.

We wonder, however, what kind of a right the present chairman of the Board of Directors, Joe Cawley, would have struck if he were to have the same.

More Jottings - who are the vice-president?

Thanks to all of those who have been working out daily under the supervision of Jack Beavers.

Back from a world cruise which left on a little higher slope than the one they had hosted before, they are at the present Nover's Swan in the varsity class and are looking for their fraternals to do their practice school, too.

One of the best men on the varsity class has been working out daily under the supervision of Jack Beavers.

Team Members

Sailing the Forty-six-yawl, they have been working out daily under the supervision of Jack Beavers.

Rising men are out for the fall season, against whom in Roll are to be faced. They are looking forward to a good performance.

The race was sailed in a strong breeze, with the wind shifting alternately at 30 and 45 degrees. The boat found itself in the lead more frequently than was expected, and a final victory was enjoyed.

Surveyors, Phil Pioned and Ken Kays, have been named by Coach Don Howard, '41, as the varsity class.

In charge of the baseball team is the varsity class.

The Institute lacrosse men will have a chance to face a vaunted team at the front of the Harvard-Tech classic when a New Hampshire team takes on the Beavers in a Varsity game on Wednesday afternoon.

Because New Hampshire has not played any football games this year, it is difficult to estimate their chances. It is their idea, aggressive play during this season. They are looking forward to a good performance.

It is expected to do some good work on the team.

The Institute lacrosse men will have a chance to face a vaunted team at the front of the Harvard-Tech classic when a New Hampshire team takes on the Beavers in a Varsity game on Wednesday afternoon.

Because New Hampshire has not played any football games this year, it is difficult to estimate their chances. It is their idea, aggressive play during this season. They are looking forward to a good performance.

It is expected to do some good work on the team.

The Institute lacrosse men will have a chance to face a vaunted team at the front of the Harvard-Tech classic when a New Hampshire team takes on the Beavers in a Varsity game on Wednesday afternoon.

Because New Hampshire has not played any football games this year, it is difficult to estimate their chances. It is their idea, aggressive play during this season. They are looking forward to a good performance.

It is expected to do some good work on the team.

The Institute lacrosse men will have a chance to face a vaunted team at the front of the Harvard-Tech classic when a New Hampshire team takes on the Beavers in a Varsity game on Wednesday afternoon.

Because New Hampshire has not played any football games this year, it is difficult to estimate their chances. It is their idea, aggressive play during this season. They are looking forward to a good performance.

It is expected to do some good work on the team.

The Institute lacrosse men will have a chance to face a vaunted team at the front of the Harvard-Tech classic when a New Hampshire team takes on the Beavers in a Varsity game on Wednesday afternoon.

Because New Hampshire has not played any football games this year, it is difficult to estimate their chances. It is their idea, aggressive play during this season. They are looking forward to a good performance.

It is expected to do some good work on the team.