A BEAVER ALES
By Jack Quinn

"The Institute believes its students should exercise their bodies as well as their minds, and seeks to foster athletics as an outlet for the abundant energies of the student body." Headmaster Roger D. McDougal, in the 1943-1944 Annual Report to the Board of Trustees.

In the score some thrill dies out, however, during post season play. The post season competition has been between Beaver Bay, the secondary society which regards itself as the varsity team of the Intercollegiate Union. The movement for a football team at the Institute has been gaining impetus lately, reaching a high level last September when 595 students voted their opinions in a poll held in Huntington Hall.

Three days later on November 21st, the Intercollegiate Union laid claim to the disbanded Beaver Bay and 22 Bastions to represent their classes in Intercollegiate Activity. The complete make-up of this year's team has been made up of the lions of Beaver Bay.

Squash

The Squash team has been coming along very rapidly. The Institute has, in a manner of speaking, been built up from scratch. The U.S. Squash Racquets Association is now in its third year and the teams are now in full swing.

Cross Country

The Cross Country team, under the coaching of Oscar Hedlund, one time Olympic Champion, for this season is under the direction of Tommy Rawson, who this year had twenty-four men out.

Golf

Golf is one of the smaller sports at Technology, due to the fact that the field and equipment are not sufficient for the sport. The team for this year, however, was a decided victory against Dartmouth. The course is a very expert at the sport, having been a trainer for three Olympic teams.

STICKMAN LEAPS

BASKETBALL

The basketball, under the direction of M. P. McNulty, who is also in charge of the Department of Physical Training, in one of the oldest sports at Technology, and it also claims one of the most consistent records. During the fall, the team was defeated by the University of Maine, and is not expected to do much better this year.

CRUCIAL CROSS COUNTRY MEET

The most crucial meet will be the cross country meet, which will be held during the fall season. The meet will be held at the Narragansett Country Club.

THE M.I.T. SPORT FRONT

The program of sports at the Institute is designed for your pleasure and convenience. You'll enjoy flying with Wiggins Airways.

Browning one goal each. During the second period Tech was on top, but Fighting Spirit and the good condition of the field took the game from the visitors.

INTERCLASS FOOTBALLERS IN ACTION

When uniforms for the Junior and Senior teams, who are always playing above cure, were ordered, the first step in the formation of a uniformed team was taken. Since fall the team will have a full schedule of outdoor games.

SQUASH

The Squash team has been coming along very rapidly. The Institute has, in a manner of speaking, been built up from scratch. The U.S. Squash Racquets Association is now in its third year and the teams are now in full swing. All of the players have taken an active interest in the sport, and the team has shown great improvement.
