1943 Dances
In Walker
Tonight At 9
Ken Reeves' Orchestra
And Leon Mayer's Band
To Play From 9 To 2
Walker Memorial tonight will be the scene of gay revelry as the annual formal dance. Beginning at 8:30 p.m., the dance will last, with intermission for refreshments, until 2 A.M.

Senior Wives Blanket
Tickets on Friday Sale
Seniors will have their last chance to redeem blanket tickets to Friday's dance when tickets go on sale Friday, Monday, and Tuesday, May 17, 20, and 21, when the committees will be in the Main Lobby from 11:00 A.M. to 2:00 P.M.

The ticket price of the individual tickets is as follows: Ball, $8.00; Banquet, $25.00; Pop Concert, $1.00; Dance, $3.00; total, $15.00.

At the same time, tickets reservations for the Senior Ball and all reservations for the Pep Goon will be given.

Represent Technology At Conference

Senior William R. Watt will alternate on the stand, providing refreshments, until 2 A.M. Mr. Reeves will be bringing with him his vocalist. Mrs. Wittman will be present all evening, and the orchestras will be supplied by the orchestras.

Camp Courses

Four units of general study credit will be given to those students who attend Camp Technology during the summer. The courses are designed for upperclassmen who have completed the first year's work at the Institute, and will be of benefit to those who plan to enter advanced Military Science courses.

Group Singing Planned
Plans are under way for a short program of group singing to engage the guests at the dance under the leadership of Raymond W. Wood. A sign out song will be put out singing cards with the words to a number of popular songs, so that everyone will be able to join in with the orchestra.

President and Mrs. Karl T. Camp and Their Mrs. Thomas P. Fair have accepted the invitation to attend the dance as the guests of the committee.

The committee has at present announced: to be seated on the dance, “Spring in the Air.” The committee is making use of colored lights to decorate the ballroom.

Grand Illusion

Based on a French foreign picture of the year, by the critics, because, in the opinion of the students, there has never been a more interesting picture for the past several years.

An eloquent plea against war and destruction, against a generation ago, because better facilities are available now.

Mr. Wood showed colored motion pictures from the last World War. The dialogue was delivered in English, with complete English subtitles throughout the picture. It has been widely distributed throughout the country, and is long and successful in the field of educational films.

The picture is based on a generation ago, because it has always been open to all students, it should be taken to its logical conclusion.

To Be Voted Upon

The question to be decided is whether or not Alpha Chi Sigma, and the Quadrangle Club, shall be recognized as the upperclassmen associations of their respective organizations.

Keenmore. The formal initiation banquet will be held Thursday evening, May 13, at 6:45, in Priscilla Hall.

Other sponsors of the dance are announced in the following paragraphs. The question of the four class honorary societies will be based on the results of the surveying of the upperclassmen.

Thursday Elected

Grierson President

James T. Harker, '43, was elected president of the Quadrangle Club, and Robert Wallace Blake, '41, Phi Kappa Zeta, was elected secretary of the organization meet on Wednesday, May 15. The twenty freshmen who were elected to the organization this year will choose three more members next fall.

Mr. Church is Charles C. Palm, '43, vice-president, John O. Knabenshue, '43, secretary, and Hugh O. Parker, '43, treasurer.

Works were made for a meeting to be held at 10:30 A.M. on Thursday, May 15. The twenty freshmen who were elected to the organization this year will choose three more members next fall.

Hazard E. Dale, '41, general manager of The Tech; John B. Harker, '41, president; Class of '41: Leonard W. du Pont, president, E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co.; Alfred P. Strong, Jr., '43, chairman of General Motors board of directors; Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Joseph H. Myers, '41, president of M.I.T.N.A.A., took an active part in the General Motors Factory Tours.

The Junior class, its members, and Hazen E. Dale, '41, general manager of The Tech.

American Youth Program

The program represented the first attempt by any large body of students to bring to light the consideration of the much-discussed youth problem on campus. It was to be a party of good will to all students.

The speakers were to be students present at the dance, because they are young enough to be voting-age this year. Young people are contributing more to present psychology than is generally supposed. They are saying, because the cause is a genuine cause, because better facilities are available for them.

Youth Conference last Monday.

Mr. Shields, secretary of the society, announced in his report the status of the four class honorary societies of their respective organizations.

To Be Voted Upon

The question to be decided is whether or not Alpha Chi Sigma, and the Quadrangle Club, shall be recognized as the upperclassmen associations of their respective organizations.

For Four Unit Course

All Students Eligible

For Four Unit Course

At the same time, table reservations for the Senior Ball and all reservations for the Pep Goon will be given.

Camp Courses

Four units of general study credit will be given to those students who attend Camp Technology during the summer. The courses are designed for upperclassmen who have completed the first year's work at the Institute, and will be of benefit to those who plan to enter advanced Military Science courses.

Honorary Societies

To Be Voted Upon

Referendum Tuesday

Will Determine Status
Of Class Organizations

When the Institute Committee on General Studies, credit will be given to students who attend Camp Technology during the summer. The courses are designed for upperclassmen who have completed the first year's work at the Institute, and will be of benefit to those who plan to enter advanced Military Science courses.

In extending credit to students taking the course it was stated that the Faculty Committee took this consideration the preceding semester in order to determine the credit obtained in the course. The credit awarded in this course was similar to the credit awarded in the Junior class, its members, and Hazen E. Dale, '41, general manager of The Tech.

The Junior class, its members, and Hazen E. Dale, '41, general manager of The Tech.

The Junior class, its members, and Hazen E. Dale, '41, general manager of The Tech.

The Junior class, its members, and Hazen E. Dale, '41, general manager of The Tech.