All-Tech Carnival Bonds Redeemed Wednesday

Redemption of the Embry-Bill bond issue of the All-Tech Carnival Bonds will be made, beginning Monday, July 1, from 12 to 2, in the Main Lobby, according to David S. McNally, treasurer of the 11th Club. Bond coupons have been computed from a reported profit of $165,500, amounting to 41.5 percent, or a face amount bonding to $450 for the six-weeks issue.

Ben Ames Williams Will Speak Tonight At Gridiron Dinner

Judge To Name Winners of Gridiron Contest

T.T.E. To Award Cup

One hundred and twenty staff members of the Outlook and Parasol, the YTC's official publications will attend the annual Gridiron dinner at 8:45 tonight in the College Common Room. Professor Henry H. Wordsworth, noted American writer, is to be the main speaker of the evening.

Mr. Wordsworth was a newspaper writer from 1913 until 1936, when he became a novelist. He is noted chiefly for his mystery stories such as "Sapen Day," "Great Copy," and "Threat of Scoundrels," which were recently written. Mr. Wordsworth, an ardent nature lover, lives in Chestnut Hills, Massachusetts.

A full, more prose-like, perhaps, speech will be given, with a conclusion.

Prof. Bennett Gives Sigma Xi Lecture

Uses Of Micro-Film Will Be Discussed

Professor Ralph D. Bennett of the Department of Electrical Engineering will be a public lecturer sponsored by the Technology Chapter of Sigma Xi, the national honorary scientific societies, Friday evening at 8:00 in the College Common Room.

The lecture will be entitled "MicroFilm—the Films on the Books of a Free Library," with the latest development of transmitting literature in the same form of photo-motion picture.

Professor Bennett, who is a specialist in the field of electrical measurements, will illustrate the lecture with several exhibits and a demonstration of his own making.

Grand Illusion Showed Today

Peace Federation Presents French Anti-War Movie In 10-250

"Grand Illusion," a famed French world depicting the evils of war, will be shown to full house in Hamilton Hall under the auspices of the Technology Peace Federation. The event was sponsored by several organizations of French students in the last World War. Captured by Germans, they are confined in enemy prison camps.

In an attempt to escape, one of the Frenchmen, an aristocrat, is killed by the German prison head with whom he has become a close friend. The other escape and find themselves as a house of a sympathetic German family. They finally cross the Rhine border just ahead of a German patrol.

Best Foreign Film

The film was named the best foreign film of the year by the New York motion picture critics. It is in French, German, and English and is subtitled in the various languages to make possible its showing to the cinema audience. The picture is subtitled in the picture as "Man and Machine," which was shown last fall, as "Front," which was shown last fall, and "The Sky," which was shown last fall.

Underclassmen Will Vote Today In Referendum

Honor Societies' Official Class Status To Be Determined

By a vote of 56 to 21, the referendum question decided whether the four honor societies, Chi Epsilon, Phi Kappa Phi, Kappa Delta, and Quadrangle Club, are to represent their respective classes in an official way in the Main Lobby, ticketing 9, from 9:40 A.M. to 1:30 P.M.

Only the three upper classes are permitted to vote, because they have had more experiences with the societies. The members of the Chi Epsilon, Phi Kappa Phi, and Quadrangle clubs will vote as a group on the Chi Epsilon, Phi Kappa Phi, and Quadrangle Club's present status. The junior and senior men in these groups are to vote as individuals. The referendum was proposed by the Chi Epsilon. Chi Epsilon was chosen for the Referendum, because the group was chosen for the Referendum, because the group did not properly represent the three residential groups.
