Gentlemen, The Theme

Today the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes are voting on whether "the following societies shall be recognized as having the purpose to promote the interests of honorary societies to the extent of carrying on purposeful programs." The indicated societies have the following objectives:

The Musical Clubs is to a certain extent a self-controlled body. The patrons of the concert as a reader of the editorial may have inferred, faith the exception of the one word "society," that organization can merely continue exactly as it was formalized. The M.I.T. Musical Clubs. The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech." The patrons of the concert as an additional source of income. It is hard to believe that the referendum's outcome will not influence the future policies of the Musical Clubs because we are always controlled by "The Tech."