Tech International Club
To Meet Today At 5:30
Notification of the constitution of the newly-formed "Technican" International Club is to take place at a public meeting for all American and foreign students today, at 5:30 in Room 1026.

The constitution has been prepared by a steering committee of twelve members who were elected at the last public meeting, April 28. If the constitution be satisfactory, elections for next year will also be held at the meeting.

Club is Promote Better Relations
Paul C. Geoer, '43, director of Foreign Students of the Y.S.A., will preside at the meeting and will introduce C. Marshall, '43, chairman of the steering committee who will read the constitution. The International Club is not exclusively for foreign students; its purpose is merely to promote closer relations between students from different nations and students from America. According to the committee, the reason, both American and foreign students have been invited to attend.
