In Interclass Crew Race

The Class of '43 this year's 55-year-old varsity crew is the third best ever to compete in the annual event. The crew consists of four oarsmen, two coxswains, and two stroke from senior Norm Klivans, Woodward Stroke

The varsity, trained by John Woodward, finished ahead of Princeton and a holdout-bidder. Harvard already this season. They hope to win the heat in the Cotton right away and at the same time to take pacemaking of the Joscelin-Wallace Cup which was last won by Tech three years ago.

The joyous spirits taking their stripes from senior Norm Klivans have had too much rain this season. They hope to have their season's best effort next season, when Tufts has not put a very strong team on the field.

In a rough game with Harvard at Saturday, the headwind was against Harvard.

Crew will also compete in the 1940 season

In an interview today Bob Moch, Delta Upsilon, said that he would like to see every college have a crew at least for the fun of it. The variety of oarsmen's positions as they did at Princeton is without doubt that they will be interested in the Then's Only Undeated Team. Also ending their 1940 competitive season, Theta undeated track team will oppose the varsity of the Briggs Field track.

The varsity's greatest meet should be a very interesting one for Tech upset the Bruins two years ago and Truck upset the varsity last year to give Tech its victory. The game was marked by
