Prentis Scores Collectivism In Commencement Address; Conant Urges Aid For Allies

Conant Tells of Job of Scientists In Maintaining Our Democracy

"What type of new society can either maintain the principles of the Allens," visited Conant in his opening address. "The President's remarks..." he continued, "...any problems connected with the immediate future..." For Biology Research

Dr. James Conant

President of the Institute, which holds the seventy-third graduation exercises in this afternoon, which up to this year, will be present. Parents and guests of the graduates, as well as alumni and the graduates themselves, will be present. Parents and the guests at the reception this evening, which is scheduled for 7:30, will be served. The reception will be in the absence of the President.

Deacon's Yesteclay:

The Deacon's Yesteclay for the Baccalaureate and Master's degree recipients, will be held in the campus auditorium on May 30, at 2:00 P.M. The Deacon's Yesteclay will begin at noon o'clock and dinner will be served in the President's house and in the Stuart Center at 5:30 P.M.

Senior Class of 1940

The senior class of 1940 is composed of 468 bachelor's degrees, nine master's degrees and three doctoral degrees. The senior class of 1940 is composed of 468 bachelor's degrees, nine master's degrees and three doctoral degrees. The senior class of 1940 is composed of 468 bachelor's degrees, nine master's degrees and three doctoral degrees. The senior class of 1940 is composed of 468 bachelor's degrees, nine master's degrees and three doctoral degrees.

The new register, listing the names of the graduating classes, will be on display in the campus auditorium on May 30, at 2:00 P.M. The Deacon's Yesteclay will begin at noon o'clock and dinner will be served in the President's house and in the Stuart Center at 5:30 P.M.

Degrees Are Given To Thirteen Women

Thirteen women students received degrees at the 1940 Commencement. The list includes the names of the graduates, their majors and the degrees they received.

Degrees Are Given To Thirteen Women

Thirteen women students received degrees at the 1940 Commencement. The list includes the names of the graduates, their majors and the degrees they received.

Degrees Are Given To Thirteen Women

Thirteen women students received degrees at the 1940 Commencement. The list includes the names of the graduates, their majors and the degrees they received.

Degrees Are Given To Thirteen Women

Thirteen women students received degrees at the 1940 Commencement. The list includes the names of the graduates, their majors and the degrees they received.