C. A. A. physical examination by the Institute's; pilot training program by action of I. No candidate who has been disqualified under twenty-one years of age must be the medical standards of the Civil Aeronautics Authority. Applicants for the Civil Aeronautics Authority program is $25.

Physical Examination Necessary Conditions for the pilot training courses will be required to have a physical examination by the Institute. No candidate who has been disqualified from participation in the military training program by action of the advisory board will be eligible.

The required fee for the Civil Aeronautics Authority programs is $25, which includes $20 for insurance, $3 for the Civil Aeronautics Authority medical examination, and a course fee of $10. The Civil Aeronautics Authority examinations will have the written consent of parents or guardians before being accepted. It is important that efforts be made to have physical examinations on Monday or Tuesday, October 7 and 8, when extra doctors will be available in the medical department.

Method of Selection Considerations governing the choice of applicants will include extra-curricular and extra-curricular activities or other class activities, race, sex, and age and time available for training. The ground school will require 15 hours and the flight program 18 hours.

Boston Public Library
Discontinuance Privileges Mr. William N. Bauer, Institute Librarian, announced recently that the Boston Public Library has discontinued the privilege of borrowing books which was formerly accorded to Technology students upon certification. The library authorities gave the reason that the library was a measure of economy.

Through this means, the organization of economy. It is important that efforts be made to have physical examinations on Monday or Tuesday, October 7 and 8, when extra doctors will be available in the medical department.

Physical Examination Necessary Conditions for the pilot training courses will be required to have a physical examination by the Institute. No candidate who has been disqualified from participation in the military training program by action of the advisory board will be eligible.

The required fee for the Civil Aeronautics Authority programs is $25, which includes $20 for insurance, $3 for the Civil Aeronautics Authority medical examination, and a course fee of $10. The Civil Aeronautics Authority examinations will have the written consent of parents or guardians before being accepted. It is important that efforts be made to have physical examinations on Monday or Tuesday, October 7 and 8, when extra doctors will be available in the medical department.

Method of Selection Considerations governing the choice of applicants will include extra-curricular and extra-curricular activities or other class activities, race, sex, and time available for training. The ground school will require 15 hours and the flight program 18 hours.

Boston Public Library
Discontinuance Privileges Mr. William N. Bauer, Institute Librarian, announced recently that the Boston Public Library has discontinued the privilege of borrowing books which was formerly accorded to Technology students upon certification. The library authorities gave the reason that the library was a measure of economy.

Through this means, the organization of economy. It is important that efforts be made to have physical examinations on Monday or Tuesday, October 7 and 8, when extra doctors will be available in the medical department.

Method of Selection Considerations governing the choice of applicants will include extra-curricular and extra-curricular activities or other class activities, race, sex, and time available for training. The ground school will require 15 hours and the flight program 18 hours.

Boston Public Library
Discontinuance Privileges Mr. William N. Bauer, Institute Librarian, announced recently that the Boston Public Library has discontinued the privilege of borrowing books which was formerly accorded to Technology students upon certification. The library authorities gave the reason that the library was a measure of economy.

Through this means, the organization of economy. It is important that efforts be made to have physical examinations on Monday or Tuesday, October 7 and 8, when extra doctors will be available in the medical department.

Method of Selection Considerations governing the choice of applicants will include extra-curricular and extra-curricular activities or other class activities, race, sex, and time available for training. The ground school will require 15 hours and the flight program 18 hours.

Boston Public Library
Discontinuance Privileges Mr. William N. Bauer, Institute Librarian, announced recently that the Boston Public Library has discontinued the privilege of borrowing books which was formerly accorded to Technology students upon certification. The library authorities gave the reason that the library was a measure of economy.

Through this means, the organization of economy. It is important that efforts be made to have physical examinations on Monday or Tuesday, October 7 and 8, when extra doctors will be available in the medical department.

Method of Selection Considerations governing the choice of applicants will include extra-curricular and extra-curricular activities or other class activities, race, sex, and time available for training. The ground school will require 15 hours and the flight program 18 hours.

Boston Public Library
Discontinuance Privileges Mr. William N. Bauer, Institute Librarian, announced recently that the Boston Public Library has discontinued the privilege of borrowing books which was formerly accorded to Technology students upon certification. The library authorities gave the reason that the library was a measure of economy.

Through this means, the organization of economy. It is important that efforts be made to have physical examinations on Monday or Tuesday, October 7 and 8, when extra doctors will be available in the medical department.

Method of Selection Considerations governing the choice of applicants will include extra-curricular and extra-curricular activities or other class activities, race, sex, and time available for training. The ground school will require 15 hours and the flight program 18 hours.

Boston Public Library
Discontinuance Privileges Mr. William N. Bauer, Institute Librarian, announced recently that the Boston Public Library has discontinued the privilege of borrowing books which was formerly accorded to Technology students upon certification. The library authorities gave the reason that the library was a measure of economy.

Through this means, the organization of economy. It is important that efforts be made to have physical examinations on Monday or Tuesday, October 7 and 8, when extra doctors will be available in the medical department.