General Cole Speaks At Administration Guild

General Cole, of the Advisory Council for National Defense of the American region, had a round table discussion with the National Defense last night in the first of a series of current event dis- cussions at the Administration Guild on campus.

General Cole first gave a brief intro- duction to his topic on the subject, and then answered questions relative to it. He also told of the problems which face vital industries with regard to labor during these critical times.

Future speakers at these discussions will be picked from leaders in many fields of the T.C.A. Offices to stay open until 6:00 P.M.

T.C.A. Offices To Stay Open Until 6:00 P.M.

Beginning Monday, October 14, the T.C.A. offices will remain open for all students, with undergraduate members remaining in charge of all departments, except for the concert last night by Walton M. Hous, General Secretary.

This plan was adopted after a full- scale, which bean last night when the office was open until the evening. Since it proved very successful, the concert would be held at, as requested, in the meeting held on Wednesday.

Extra Hour for Freshmen Presidents who come out for the T.C.A. will speak one hour each week, after five o'clock for the office, they were told at the meeting sponsor- ed by the T.C.A. yesterday after- noon.

The office will be closed all day to- day. Another thing that we shall do is to speak.

Nothing like Coca-Cola with food

Good things to eat...and ice-cold Coca-Cola. You see it everywhere, because the life and sparkle and taste of ice-cold Coca-Cola adds something to food that everybody likes. Try it yourself.
