and was immediately screamed by Captain McGuire and Earl Foote. When Marzani picked himself off the ground, Finte and Wetmore, usually unruffled by the exchanged plunks on the Anderson yard line, were brought up abruptly for the 10.

Coach Sunt sent Bill Hunter into the game on the 30. Moss Bunn dropped off 3 yards in the 30. Hunter streaked over to Arnold who scooped up the 54 as the quarter ended. Moss Bunn whacked off more yardage, but the ball was made good by the countermoves. Hunter followed suit effective to the 2 yard strip. A fake was slipped, then Jack Arnold went over left guard for the touchdown. A bad pass from center on the Apprentice 30. The point after tied. It

As time was running out, Bill Hunter was sent to the Tech 30. His team was down 10 to 7, with time running out, and the Sophomore defense was playing even better. Bill Hunter, usually a blocking back for the Sophomore grid squad,"tried his hand at carrying the ball as his team preps for the Field Day Battle.

HATHAWAY CARRIES THE MAIL

Bud Hathaway, regularly a blocking back for the Sophomore grid squad, "tried his hand at carrying the ball as his team preps for the Field Day Battle.

Lack Of Early '44 Class Spirit Will Aid Sophomores Field Day

The coach mentioned that the fellows have been taking a lot about their Grid last year, but that as yet they have done nothing concrete about it. On the other hand Jack Hunter, freshmen mentor, claimed that his boys were "small but pretty tough," so evidently it is the freshmen who merited the credit. Once again the Glee Fife takes the stage!}
