MILLER AT DANCE

Complete football suits are to be offered to all students as a surprise later at the first annual Football Dance, November 15, it was announced three months ago by the chairman of the Dance Committee, Joseph J. Jerome.

The formal ball long anticipated by the Local Lilies and the Wellesley Wolverines will be conducted along the general rules of the above light omitting the clause specifying that articles of clothing must not be hidden except for the requirement that trousers must be in evidence at all times.

Stage Sissified

Technically strict, but denounced by the Local Lilies and all Wellesley students for playing too rough at the Institute hop, have also been abolished by the new regulations posted about the campus. The rules limit the size and height of the traditional Blackjacks to a mere 10 kilograms in the case system, or a percentage of the way the English do it.

All drinking must be done at the well-known Lounge Bar where the (Continued on Page 7)
