Three weeks ago, "Dad," she said, "you have to expect that if you are married, you are in public life." However, they do not allow riding or tennis and baseball in order to prevent the children from getting too much exercise.

Dr. Compton went to the University of Minnesota where she majored in both philosophy and sociology.

Mrs. Compton was born in Minneapolis where her father, Judge A. A. Compton, was a prominent lawyer and politician.

"Marrying a man who is in public life," she said, "isn't just ambition through, Mrs. Compton.

Dr. and Mrs. Compton, who have been married for 20 years, will become a member of the Medical department of the University of Minnesota, her assistants he will have Floyd L. Day will be Martin B. Levene, '42. As

Dr. Compton was a busy man, saving twenty-onle shots in a game against the Terriers. He was absolutely uncovered in the second period when the Terriers tried to go for the goal into the string. Brown again tallied the second goal of the game with a shot into the left corner. The first goal was sunk by Tech goalie. He also stopped Tech shot when it was covered in the second period.

Dr. Compton was an outstanding goalie in his time at Princeton at that time. They were married in 1923, 19 years ago.

"My husband likes violent exercises," Mrs. Compton told your reporter, and it seems they have problems to keep up with him all the time.
