C. E. Spencer
Is Elected To Corporation
To Join Institute Board This Month; Will Serve Special Five Year Term

Mr. Charles E. Spencer, president of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston, has been elected to the Institute Board of Trustees.

Mr. Spencer has been associated with the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company for over thirty years, and has held various positions within the company, including that of president.

He is a member of several professional and civic organizations, and is well known for his contributions to the field of insurance.

He will serve as a member of the Institute Board of Trustees for a special five year term, beginning in January of next year.

E. M. Rips Elected
New A. S. U. Head

Student Union President Successful
Seth Levine

Aided By Daniel Miller

Seth Levine, president of the American Student Union at Cornell, has been elected to the position of president of the Student Union at the University of Pennsylvania. This is Levine's second term as president, having served previously in the same capacity.

Levine, a fourth-year student in the College of Arts and Sciences, has been an active member of the Student Union and has played a leading role in many of its activities.

He is a member of several professional and civic organizations, and is well known for his contributions to the field of insurance.

Spring Play Is Selected

For Dramashow

"Margin For Error"

Will Be Presented

March 28, 219

Muriel W. Prouty has selected the play "Margin For Error", by Stephanie West, for the spring production of a drama meeting this month. The play, which will be presented in the Netherlands Room of the Graduate house, is in the hands of the production committee.

The story, written in 1939, is very interesting and is a play which has been chosen by the committee for its educational value.