Outing Club Men Go Skiing Overnight

With plenty of snow in the mountains, ten Outing Club members will go on an overnight ski trip to the Gifford-Lincoln area on Saturday, January 16. Led by James W. Nagle, '42, the group will go by bus to the Gifford Youth Hostel, where a chair, two tee ropes, open slopes and lifts provide good facilities for ski-ing.

The club's new pals limits the group to ten, but anyone who can obtain an individual pass is welcome. The members will do their own cooking and bring their own blankets. One group will be in the morning, the other will leave at 11:00 P.M. Plans for Mid-Term Outings At least three trips are being planned for the Outing Club for students staying at the Institute during the mid-term recess. Trips to Mount Desert, in Tremont, or to Intervale are planned, but definite plans have not been announced.

The service riders will go on another trip led by Albert R. Root, '42, on Saturday, January 16. The trip, which will leave Waite after 12:30 P.M., will probably go to the Commonwealth Country Club
