Leon E. Farr Jr.
From 38 Revolver
In Hands Of Friend
The life of Leon Edwin Farr. Jr., 14, is the balance late last night as the doctor of the Massachusetts General Hospital in the police
In 1982, a submarine ship was dismantled because he has asked for
(Continued on Page 5)

Admiral Yarnell Tells Upperclassmen Of Opportunities Offered By Navy
Speaking in a room packed with members of the upper classes, Rear Admiral Harry E. Yarnell Jr. of the United States Navy, told students in the various engineering corps of the Navy, as a result of his talk, between twenty and forty were packed full of the corps in aeronautical engineering who offered the term for those who wish to enter the service as aviators or engineer Specialists. Approximately twenty-five other corps who signed their intentions for the service in other branches. No estimates of the number of Navy that signed up was available last night. According to Mr. Nathaniel Sage, Professor of Math, the number of cadets, these Specialists and graduate students cannot take the special aeronautics course in this term, but wish to enter the Navy as A.V.S., may take the course for the period of the summer, and enter the service in completion of the course. Lieutenant Commander Parham will be at the end of the next two weeks to talk with those interested in this phase in this period. All those who are interested should make their names at the Placement Bureau.

Yarnell Speaks Twice
Accompanied by several of his aides, who explained the opportunities in their various departments, Admiral Yarnell spoke at 10:00 one hour before to Students, the second to Juniors. Farr for Ensign is 1982 a month with alimony of $25 a month, it was no.

Ring Poll To Be Staged
500 Upperclassmen Must Vote To Legalize Second Referendum
The "Breeze Hall" vs. the inoperability of the Architect question is to be placed before the members of the Junior and Senior classes for the second time, in a poll conducted by the Tech Wednesday, February 15, in the Main Lobby. At least 400 members of the two classes must satisfy their choice of class ring in order to have the poll considered. Posters with pictures of both types of rings will be placed on all bulletin boards around the building today or tomorrow and copies of the rings are to be on exhibit in the display cases in the small lobby before the ballots on the first floor of Building 16.

Last Poll Closer
The second poll to be held this week is the one to cast a vote for the second referendum, which in which only 274 votes were cast, 186 for the new type ring, as opposed to 118 for the old style. Because of the divided opinion on the subject and the number of votes that were cast, the Institute Committee passed a motion stating that the poll would count only if 600 or more votes were cast and if sixty-three and a third percent of the votes favor the change.

Options, Prices At $3, To Be Sold To Juniors On February 13-14;
Redemptions Are $3
Benny Goodman, with a rejuvenated band and a definitely new style, has been signed to play for this year's Junior Prom at the Ballroom, 67 Boylston Street. On the evening of Friday, March 7, the competition was opened by Dr. Freeman. Goodman's band was one of the top choices in the Prom Committee's poll last December, and it lends considerable weight to the fact that he will be the first choice to bring in a solid swing of the cabaret master has been replaced by a modern smooth.

Cortez Williams Joins Goodman
Two original members are left in the band with the introduction of the new stars. "Cortez" Williams is the sousaphone man, and a famous grump trumpet. The result of the change has been a greater versatility.

(Continued on Page 11)

Weese '38 Wins National Contest
Four Others Receive Honorable Mention In Design Competition
The names of several former and present Technology students have been listed among the winners in the Industrial Design Competition for Junior Students held in the Art Center last week. Among the thirteen Honorable mention to the same category.

High School Planning For Debaters This Month
Attempting to continue this year's perfect record made by winning the two matches held in January, the debating society will take part in five contests this month.

On the twentieth the team will have two matches with Yale, here and one with New Haven, on the subject "Freedom of speech to aliens.

Prom Statistics
Ticket Price: $3
Reduce $1 for Juniors
Total $5
Option Sales: For Juniors
For all others
Option Redemptions:
Feb. 27 and 28
Date of Prom: March 7, 103
At Hotel Statler

M.I.T. Broadens Ph. D. Policy
Ph. D. In Social Studies Offered B. A. Gradus Beginning Next Fall
The graduate school of the Institute will depart from its policy of granting the doctor of philosophy degree only to those who have passed a final exam of pure science, and adult candidates for a Ph.D. in social studies next fall. This change in policy is caused by the opening of a special program in industrial economics under the direction of Professor Ralph F. Pres.

The course will be aimed at adult students who have the competence of a good graduate student, but who are not able to present written work as a Ph. D. thesis. This new course will be offered beginning next fall.

Arundel Exhibit To End Thursday
The exhibit of material connected with Robert's "Always in Mind," which has been on display in the Central Library recently, will end Thursday, February 17. It was announced yesterday by William N. Beavan, the Institute Librarian.

This interesting exhibit shows how Roberts wrote a novel. It is being dismantled because he has asked for its return, needing the material to use in reference in connection with a new novel which he is at work on at present.

On the tenth the team will have two matches with Yale, here and one with New Haven, on the subject "Freedom of speech to aliens."

On the twentieth the team will have two matches with Yale, here and one with New Haven, on the subject "Freedom of speech to aliens."

Orchestra Announced For Annual Dance To Be Held March 7
Admiral Harry E. Yarnell

From 38 Revolver
In Hands Of Friend
The life of Leon Edwin Farr. Jr., 14, is the balance late last night as the doctor of the Massachusetts General Hospital in the police
In 1982, a submarine ship was dismantled because he has asked for
(Continued on Page 5)

Admiral Yarnell Tells Upperclassmen Of Opportunities Offered By Navy
Speaking in a room packed with members of the upper classes, Rear Admiral Harry E. Yarnell Jr. of the United States Navy, told students in the various engineering corps of the Navy, as a result of his talk, between twenty and forty were packed full of the corps in aeronautical engineering who offered the term for those who wish to enter the service as aviators or engineer Specialists. Approximately twenty-five other corps who signed their intentions for the service in other branches. No estimates of the number of Navy that signed up was available last night. According to Mr. Nathaniel Sage, Professor of Math, the number of cadets, these Specialists and graduate students cannot take the special aeronautics course in this term, but wish to enter the Navy as A.V.S., may take the course for the period of the summer, and enter the service in completion of the course. Lieutenant Commander Parham will be at the end of the next two weeks to talk with those interested in this phase in this period. All those who are interested should make their names at the Placement Bureau.

Yarnell Speaks Twice
Accompanied by several of his aides, who explained the opportunities in their various departments, Admiral Yarnell spoke at 10:00 one hour before to Students, the second to Juniors. Farr for Ensign is 1982 a month with alimony of $25 a month, it was no.

Ring Poll To Be Staged
500 Upperclassmen Must Vote To Legalize Second Referendum
The "Breeze Hall" vs. the inoperability of the Architect question is to be placed before the members of the Junior and Senior classes for the second time, in a poll conducted by the Tech Wednesday, February 15, in the Main Lobby. At least 400 members of the two classes must satisfy their choice of class ring in order to have the poll considered. Posters with pictures of both types of rings will be placed on all bulletin boards around the building today or tomorrow and copies of the rings are to be on exhibit in the display cases in the small lobby before the ballots on the first floor of Building 16.

Last Poll Closer
The second poll to be held this week is the one to cast a vote for the second referendum, which in which only 274 votes were cast, 186 for the new type ring, as opposed to 118 for the old style. Because of the divided opinion on the subject and the number of votes that were cast, the Institute Committee passed a motion stating that the poll would count only if 600 or more votes were cast and if sixty-three and a third percent of the votes favor the change.

Options, Prices At $3, To Be Sold To Juniors On February 13-14;
Redemptions Are $3
Benny Goodman, with a rejuvenated band and a definitely new style, has been signed to play for this year's Junior Prom at the Ballroom, 67 Boylston Street. On the evening of Friday, March 7, the competition was opened by Dr. Freeman. Goodman's band was one of the top choices in the Prom Committee's poll last December, and it lends considerable weight to the fact that he will be the first choice to bring in a solid swing of the cabaret master has been replaced by a modern smooth.

Cortez Williams Joins Goodman
Two original members are left in the band with the introduction of the new stars. "Cortez" Williams is the sousaphone man, and a famous grump trumpet. The result of the change has been a greater versatility.

(Continued on Page 11)

Weese '38 Wins National Contest
Four Others Receive Honorable Mention In Design Competition
The names of several former and present Technology students have been listed among the winners in the Industrial Design Competition for Junior Students held in the Art Center last week. Among the thirteen Honorable mention to the same category.

High School Planning For Debaters This Month
Attempting to continue this year's perfect record made by winning the two matches held in January, the debating society will take part in five contests this month.

On the twentieth the team will have two matches with Yale, here and one with New Haven, on the subject "Freedom of speech to aliens."

Orchestra Announced For Annual Dance To Be Held March 7
Admiral Harry E. Yarnell