M.I.T. A.A. Relay Record is Clipped To 3:27.8
In New York Track Win

Varsity, Frosh
Also Run Relays
In Two Mid-Week Vacation Meets

A new M.I.T.'s varsity mile relay record was written in the books yesterday as the distance men of the University of Pennsylvania and Columbia University in the 24th annual running of the New England Intercollegiate Championship Meet at Marlboro, N.Y. The distance men of both service teams were to run together, each team being made up of two members from the Navy and two from the Army. The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The distance men of both service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.

The service teams were to run against Columbia, Harvard, and Yale.