Buckman Lose Final To Colby
Cardogan And Sage Play Last Game
As Tech Beat B-7-4
Playing their last home games for the season, Cardogan and Sage met in a hard-fought match at the Boston Arena last Friday night. The final score was 7-4, which was the second consecutive victory for the Tech pair.

The Beavers showed early fight and early points when they went out to a first period lead of 2-1. Colby's left wing, Eric Wendl, earned his first unassisted point on the season for his Tech partner.

The Beavers allowed the first point and early goals, but in the opening period went out to a first period lead of 2-1. The first period was one of the most exciting of the season for the Tech pair.

The Beavers allowed the first point and early goals, but in the opening period went out to a first period lead of 2-1. The first period was one of the most exciting of the season for the Tech pair.

The Beavers allowed the first point and early goals, but in the opening period went out to a first period lead of 2-1. The first period was one of the most exciting of the season for the Tech pair.

The Beavers allowed the first point and early goals, but in the opening period went out to a first period lead of 2-1. The first period was one of the most exciting of the season for the Tech pair.

The Beavers allowed the first point and early goals, but in the opening period went out to a first period lead of 2-1. The first period was one of the most exciting of the season for the Tech pair.

The Beavers allowed the first point and early goals, but in the opening period went out to a first period lead of 2-1. The first period was one of the most exciting of the season for the Tech pair.

The Beavers allowed the first point and early goals, but in the opening period went out to a first period lead of 2-1. The first period was one of the most exciting of the season for the Tech pair.

The Beavers allowed the first point and early goals, but in the opening period went out to a first period lead of 2-1. The first period was one of the most exciting of the season for the Tech pair.

The Beavers allowed the first point and early goals, but in the opening period went out to a first period lead of 2-1. The first period was one of the most exciting of the season for the Tech pair.

The Beavers allowed the first point and early goals, but in the opening period went out to a first period lead of 2-1. The first period was one of the most exciting of the season for the Tech pair.