Drumashop Help Proposed
Spokesmen for the Budget Committee, Karl L. Dicken, '44, and William K. Macfarlane, '42, announced that an appropriation of $100 as an aid to the Drumashop in securing its bail, with the hopes that the size of its membership will be increased to the $1000 dollars he turned in from the committee. Last year, support was received directly from the Institute, but for instance it may appear to the institute supporting an undergraduates' activity, no help was obtained from that quarter. The Heuer Key Society received $100 to be utilized in considering the remainder of the society's project. $150.83 was also awarded to You Desh for losses sustained during the management by the Institute Committee.
Annexed Aids for Record Case
William H. Almond, '43, asked for $41 to be used in the construction of a new record case in the Walker Library. Almond announced that the Parchas Committee had $394 with which to buy new ones and replace old records, but that there was no room for the presence of the music of the H.H. Dunlop Society in which class president nominated, the remainder of the society's activity.

T. C. A. Delegates Attend Meeting Of Christians, Jews
Mass. Committee Held Annual Banquet Yesterday Evening
Again this year, three representatives were invited to the Massachusetts Committee's Annual Conference of Christians and Jews, which was held last night at the Boston Chamber of Commerce. The three technology delegates, who were chosen by the T.C.A., were E. Power, '41; president of the Technology Club; Henry Lessig, '42, representing Jewish students, and W. Howard Shaw, '42, president of the T.C.A., representing Catholic students.
A. James, former Postmaster General, was the main speaker of the evening. Mr. Fairbank, H. Nickson, President of Wellesley College, and Mr. Frank L. Well, president of the National Jewish Welfare Board were the other guest speakers.
Stomatett is Chairman
Governor Leverett Saltonstall was chairman and Mayor Maurice J. O'Connell was the official at the dinner which preceded the evening's program.
This year's Conference of Christians and Jews, attended by the Massachusetts Committee, was sponsored by the Massachusetts Committee. The idea of the conference is to bring about a closer understanding of and cooperation between American Protestant, Jewish, Catholic and Jewish students.
