LET'S SWIM DOUBLE
ON SATURDAYS

The spring social season which opened with the Assemblies Ball Friday night will be in full force from now until examination time. During the social session, many of the fellows will be having their best girls come up to Boston for the affairs, and the problem of getting them the best time possible will be uppermost.

The swimming pool is one of the most pestilent parts of our campus and it should be the ideal place to spend a spare afternoon. However, there are several inherent difficulties because of the hours scheduled for mixed swimming. As a result of this, mixed swimming is restricted to Sunday afternoon and evening and holidays. This means that if it rains before early evening Sunday, the pool facilities are completely out of your reach. You can not even show her what the pool looks like, let alone swim in it.

There appears to be no real reason why the pool could not be opened to mixed swimming on Saturdays and evenings in addition to the hours on Sunday. This would permit a larger number of students to use the pool Saturday afternoon and evening, during the mixed swimming or competitive events take place at that time no one would be denied its use. We feel that this is one way the swimming pool could be made to fill a greater part in the social life of Technology undergraduates.

MUSICAL PROBLEM NUMBER 1

With the presentation of the joint concert given by the M.T.E. Glee Club and the Wellesley Choir, our attention was called to one of the poor home support given the Musical Clubs as attested by the absence of Tech students at this affair. In the past, as is often the case, too much attention has been given to the concert going and too little to the entertainment. Both these playsboys evidently had the time and opportunity to attend the concert but their love for music seems to be limited to boogie woogie. As a result, Glee Club members, after singing to a very disappoint-
