Besse won only one race apiece, but a total of 71 points. With the highest year as a result of the fine sailing of Yeal. will remain at Tech this year.

Besse, who participated in the Spring Sailing Tournament held at the Boston Yacht Club, is eager to have a large turnout. Previous years have shown a high number of participants.

The first round of the Beaver Key Baseball Tourney, held on April 22, was won by the Elite Flowers, a team from Boston. The tournament is scheduled for the rest of the spring season.

Crimson Crewmen Are Heavier And Taller Than The Beavers

Having lost three men of the team through graduation last year, the Harvard crew that the Tech varsity six will have on Saturday in the Rowing Cup has only three men from last year's first in their first boat this year.

The three Crimson oarsmen, who were the freshmen last year, were re-elected by the Jovial crewmen in the selection process. The Crimson crewmen were stroked by their captain, who was elected at the annual boxing wrestling banquet.

The Crimson crewmen are stronger than last year, is anticipated, by Leland. The average height is about 180 pounds to the average Tech height of 165. Besse was credited with one assist.
